14 November Maths Paper1 South Africa

Jill Adler, Anna Sfard

14 November Maths Paper1 South Africa:

Primary Education in Crisis Brahm Fleisch, 2008 In the past decade the national preoccupation has been on the crisis in secondary schools Lurking behind the intractable problem of low pass rates the dysfunctional schools and the small number of higher grade mathematics and science graduates is the calamity in primary education Drawing on the work of researchers in a range of fields including psychology sociology anthropology linguistics economics the health sciences and mathematics education this book documents the depth and scope of the primary education crisis and provides a comprehensive and rigorous explanation of its causes Primary education in crisis pulls together the wealth of research on health poverty resources language and teaching as factors in academic achievement in reading writing and mathematics At the centre of the book is an analysis of the published studies that systematically document what teachers teach and fail to teach and why it is that teaching is at the heart of the crisis in primary education The author suggests that there are no quick fixes but only hard choices and that for reform to succeed it must be evidence based Caught in the Act Cyril Julie, Lorna Holtman, Charles R. Smith, 2019-12-11 The research reported in Caught in the Act draws together the insights gained from a continuous professional development initiative for high school mathematics teachers teaching in low socio economic status and socially challenged environments in South Africa The chapters show the possibilities for enhancing achievement in school mathematics if a strength based approach is adopted to develop teaching with teachers and when their concerns are taken seriously The book demonstrates that the ecological relevance fitness for the context in which teachers are teaching of the goods developed and distributed by initiatives should be a major consideration to offer hope for sustainable implementation to improve school mathematics education The book is of interest to mathematics teachers school leaders mathematics curriculum advisors policy makers and researchers The Times Index, January -December 2012, 2012

Preschool Geometry Esther Levenson, Dina Tirosh, Pessia Tsamir, 2012-01-01 Recently the issue of early childhood mathematics has come to the fore and with it the importance of teaching geometrical concepts and reasoning from a young age Geometry is a key domain mentioned in many national curricula and may also support the learning of other mathematical topics such as number and patterns This book is based on the rich experience research and practice of the authors and is devoted entirely to the learning and teaching of geometry in preschool The first part of the book is dedicated to children's geometrical thinking building concept images in line with concept definitions and the dilemmas that arise in the process The second part focuses on geometrical tasks and their role in developing and assessing geometrical reasoning The third part focuses on teaching geometry to young children Each of the three parts is structured in a similar manner beginning with general theory and research continuing with specific examples related to those theories and moving on to elements of actual practice Written in a meaningful yet enjoyable manner any person who has an interest in the mathematics education of preschool children be it parents caregivers teachers teacher educators and researchers will find this book relevant
