

by Agatha Christie

the bush. By the most incredible luck it came off—but it wasn't in time to save them. And the rumor got around that I'd deliberately abandoned my men. There's life for you!

VERA. Do you expect me to believe that? Why, you actually admitted the whole thing.

LOMBARD. I know. I got such a kick out of watching their faces.

VERA. You can't fool me with a stupid lie like that.

LOMBARD. (Completely losing his temper.) Blast you!

VERA. (To Right window.) Why didn't I see it before! It's there in your face—the face of a killer—

LOMBARD. You can't fool me any longer.

VERA. Oh— (VERA swings forward as if joining. LOMBARD runs to catch her. She wears the revolver from him.) Now!

LOMBARD. (Backing away down Left.) You cunning little devil!

VERA. If you come one step nearer, I'll shoot.

LOMBARD. You—young, lovely, and quite, quite mad.

(LOMBARD makes a movement to VERA. She shouts. He falls down Left. She goes over to him, her eyes full of horror as she realizes what she has done. The revolver falls from her hand. Suddenly she hears a low laugh coming from the study door. She turns her head slowly in that direction. The laughter grows louder. The Right door slowly opens and WARGRAVE enters. He carries a rope in his hand.)

WARGRAVE. It's all come true. My Ten Little Soldiers plan—
My rhyme—my rhyme—

VERA. Ah! (Sighed scream.)

Said we'd trap the murderer. We'd fix up my supposed death so I should be free to spy upon the guilty one. He thought it an excellent plan—came out that night to meet me by the cliff without any suspicion. I sent him over with a push—so easily. He swallowed my red herring all right. (VERA is petrified with horror. In a confidential manner.) You know, Vera Claythorne, all my life I've wanted to take life—yes, to take life. I've had to get what enjoyment I could out of sentencing the guilty to death. (VERA moves to revolver.) I always enjoyed that—but it wasn't enough. I wanted more—I wanted to do it myself with my own hands— (WARGRAVE follows VERA to Left. VERA leaves against Left 1 door. Suddenly curbs excitement and speaks with severe dignity.) But I'm a Judge of the High Court. I've got a sense of justice. (As if listening to an echo.) As between our Sovereign Lord the King and the prisoner at the Bar—will true deliverance make—Guilty, my Lord. Yes. (Nods head.) Guilty. You want all guilty, you know, but the Law couldn't touch you, so I had to take the Law into my own hands. (Holds up hands in a frenzy of delight.) Into my own hands! Silence in the Court! (VERA hammers on Left 1 door. WARGRAVE takes her arm and drags her to Right above Left sofa.) Anthony Marston first. Then Mrs. Rogers. Bartholomew in the brandy. MacKenzie—stabbed. Our Rogers with an axe when he was chopping sticks. Doped Emily Brent's coffee so she couldn't feel the hypodermic. Booby trap for Blane. (Confidentially.) Blane was a fool. I always knew it would be easy to get Blane. Returning that revolver was a clever touch. Made the end interesting. I knew you two would suspect each other in the end. The question was, who'd win out? I looked on you, my dear. The female of the species. Besides, it's always more exciting to have a girl at the end. (He steps onto sofa, and VERA falls to the ground.) Prisoner at the Bar, have you anything to say why sentence should not be passed on you? Vera Elizabeth Claythorne, I sentence you to death—

(WARY CERTAIN.)

VERA. (With a sudden outcry.) Stop! Stop! I'm not guilty! I'm not guilty!
