Manzari, Mourad Zeghal, 2019-11-15 This open access book presents work collected through the Liquefaction Experiments and Analysis Projects LEAP in 2017 It addresses the repeatability variability and sensitivity of lateral spreading observed in twenty four centrifuge model tests on mildly sloping liquefiable sand The centrifuge tests were conducted at nine different centrifuge facilities around the world For the first time a sufficient number of experiments were conducted to enable assessment of variability of centrifuge test results The experimental data provided a unique basis for assessing the capabilities of twelve different simulation platforms for numerical simulation of soil liquefaction The results of the experiments and the numerical simulations are presented and discussed in papers submitted by the project participants The work presented in this book was followed by LEAP Asia that included assessment of a generalized scaling law and culminated in a workshop in Osaka Japan in March 2019 LEAP 2020 ongoing at the time of printing is addressing the validation of soil structure interaction analyses of retaining walls involving a liquefiable soil A workshop is planned at RPI USA in 2020

A Smarter Charter Richard D. Kahlenberg, Halley Potter, 2014-09-19 Moving beyond the debate over whether or not charter schools should exist A Smarter Charter wrestles with the question of what kind of charter schools we should encourage The authors begin by tracing the evolution of charter schools from Albert Shanker's original vision of giving teachers room to innovate while educating a diverse population of students to today's charter schools where student segregation levels are even higher than in traditional public schools In the second half of the book the authors examine two key reforms currently seen in a small but growing number of charter schools socioeconomic integration and teacher voice that have the potential to improve performance and reshape the stereotypical image of what it means to be a charter school

Handbook of Research on Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Managerial and Leadership Psychology Johnson, Rick D., 2021-01-22 The subject of leadership and managerial psychology exists as a sub branch of psychology within the fields of industrial and organizational psychology There still appears to be ongoing debate regarding the core pathology for gaining managerial expertise in professional roles relative to having suitable leadership skills and managerial knowledge beyond the direct daily work involved in organizations Professional organizations inherently include varied levels of sensitive human interactions which further necessitates their management professionals to have leadership styles that are adjustable contingent on a given situation Relative to this edited book managerial psychology is being utilized in a way that may subsequently seek to

Louisiana Administrative Code Charlotte Corneil, 1984 Shuttered Schools Ebony M. Duncan-Shippy, 2019-04-01 Since the late 1990s mass school closures have reshaped urban education across the United States Popular media coverage and research reports link this resurgence of school closures in major cities like Chicago and Philadelphia to charter school expansion municipal budget deficits and racial segregation However this phenomenon is largely overlooked in contemporary education scholarship Shuttered Schools Race Community and School

Closures in American Cities Information Age Publishing is an interdisciplinary volume that integrates multiple perspectives to study the complex practice of school closure an issue that transcends education Academics practitioners activists and policymakers will recognize the far reaching implications of these decisions for school communities Shuttered Schools features rigorous new studies of school closures in cities across the United States This research contextualizes contemporary school closures and accounts for their disproportionate impact on African American students With topics ranging from gentrification and redevelopment to student experiences with school loss research presented in this text incorporates various methods e g case studies interviews regression techniques and textual analysis to evaluate the intended and unintended consequences of closure for students families and communities This work demonstrates that shifts in the social economic and political contexts of education inform closure practice in meaningful ways The impacts of shuttering schools are neither colorblind nor class neutral but indeed interact with social contexts in ways that reify existing social inequalities in education
