Controlling Capital

Nicholas Dorn, 2016-02-12 Controlling Capital examines three pressing issues in financial market regulation: the contested status of public regulation, the emergence of culture as a proposed modality of market governance, and the renewed ascendancy of private regulation. In the years immediately following the outbreak of crisis in financial markets, public regulation seemed almost to be attaining a position of command, the robustness and durability of which is explored here in respect of market conduct, European Union capital markets union, and US and EU competition policies. Subsequently, there has been a softening of command and a return to public-private co-regulation positioned within a narrative on culture. The potential and limits of culture as a regulatory resource are unpacked here in respect of occupational and organisational aspects, stakeholder connivance, and wider political embeddedness. Lastly, the book looks from both appreciative and critical perspectives at private regulation through financial market associations, arbitration of disputes, and most controversially, market policing by hedge funds. Bringing together a distinguished group of international experts, this book will be a key text for all those concerned with issues arising at the intersection of financial markets, law, culture, and governance. Structural Reforms and Macroeconomic Performance - Initial Considerations for the Fund International Monetary Fund, 2015-10-14 Structural policies have become a prominent feature of today's macroeconomic policy discussion. For many countries, lackluster economic growth and high unemployment cloud the outlook. With fewer traditional policy options, policymakers are increasingly focused on the complementary role of structural policies in promoting more durable, job-rich growth. In particular, the G20 has emphasized the essential role of structural reforms in ensuring strong, sustainable, and balanced growth. Against this backdrop, the 2014 Triennial Surveillance Review (TSR) called for further work to enhance the Fund's ability to selectively provide more expert analysis and advice on structural issues, particularly where there is broad interest among member countries. The purpose of this paper is to engage the Board on staff's post-TSR work toward strengthening the Fund's capacity to analyze and, where relevant, offer policy advice on macro-relevant structural issues.

The Green Market Transition Stefan E. Weishaar, Larry Kreiser, Janet E. Milne, Hope Ashiabor, Michael Mehling, 2017-08-25 The Paris Agreement's key objective is the strengthening of the global response to climate change by transitioning the world to an increasingly green economy. In this book, environmental tax and climate law experts examine carbon taxes, energy subsidies, and support schemes for carbon and energy policies. Chapters reflect on the underlying policy dynamics and the constraints of various fiscal measures and consider the harmonisation of smart instrument mixes.

Global Economic Prospects, Volume 9, June 2014 World Bank World Bank, 2014-06-10 The global economy got off to a bumpy start this year but growth in 2015 and 2016 looks to be broadly on track Projections for developing countries in 2014 have been down downgraded by 0.5 percentage points to 4.8 percent mainly reflecting weak first quarter growth in the US due to weather and the conflict in Ukraine Going forward growth is projected to firm to 5.3 and 5.5 percent in 2015 and 2016 supported by easy global financial conditions and rebounding exports as high income countries continue to recover under the influence of a reduced drag from fiscal consolidation and improving labor markets Financial conditions will eventually tighten and when they do there is risk of further volatility Most developing countries are in good fiscal and financial shape but where vulnerabilities remain countries need to tighten policy to reduce the potential impact of external shocks Overall growth for developing countries will be solid but not strong enough to generate the income and employment gains needed to eliminate poverty by 2013 As a result countries need to focus on structural reform in order to lift growth in an enduring and sustainable manner 2025-26 MP
