Clark, Martina O'Brien, Karen Sumpton, Caroline Plaice, Suzanne Waugh, 2011-05-20. This book helps students master the key learning skills they need to become successful learners throughout their degree and beyond. It clearly explains the core skills they will need right from the start of the course, such as writing and numeracy skills, and how to organise studies. It also introduces more advanced skills that students will need as the course progresses, such as research and evidence-based practice. It shows how to use these important skills to succeed both at university and as a registered nurse. Professional Learning In Nursing Jenny Spouse, 2008-04-15. The way nurses are taught is constantly evolving and changing. Workplace learning is seen as key to developing practitioners. In this book, Jenny Spouse discusses how students learn in a range of different clinical settings and how best to facilitate this process. How do students learn to become nurses? What knowledge and understanding do they need to acquire? How do their preconceptions, beliefs about the learning process, and social needs affect their development? What do they find helpful and unhelpful? What makes clinical settings good for learning? Is it helpful for students to document their learning? What are the best ways for lecturer practitioners to facilitate student learning and what other factors influence their progress The book explores how professional development can be better understood following the progress of six nurse learners drawn from different parts of nursing and investigating both those difficulties faced by all students and those issues unique to particular students It places these narratives in the context of nurse education today exploring the implications of Fitness for practice and Making a difference and looking at the implications for the future development organisation and funding of nurse education
