societal challenges and promote positive social change Europe's Disappearing Middle Class? Daniel Vaughan-Whitehead,2016-10-28 While recent studies have highlighted the phenomenon and risks of increased inequalities between the top and the bottom of society little research has so far been carried out on trends relating to the median income range that generally represents the middle class This volume examines the following questions what are the main transformations in the world of work over the last 20 years in terms of the labour market social dialogue and conditions of work wages and incomes that may have affected the middle class How has the middle class been altered by the financial and economic crisis What are the long term trends for the middle class in Europe Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald,2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Bullsh*t Comparisons Andrew Brooks,2024-06-06 Bullshit Comparisons will challenge the way you think about rankings charts and other marketing and political tools designed to create odious and dangerous comparisons Is Boris Johnson really like Winston Churchill Are electric cars actually greener than petrol ones Which is the world s most successful university Is Lisbon the new Barcelona Should we compare the achievements of younger and older siblings even when we know it damages their self worth We make comparisons every day but how helpful are they Looking across a dazzling range of situations both familiar and unfamiliar Bullshit Comparisons is a ground breaking examination of the role of comparison in modern society illuminated by examples spanning from the FIFA World Footballer of the year to wine tasting in London hospital care in Sierra Leone and avocado farming in Colombia Challenging us to think critically about the use of comparison through accessible personal and often amusing research Andrew Brooks reveals the uses and abuses of comparisons in a book that isn t like anything else you have read The Public Wealth of Cities Dag Detter,Stefan Folster,2017-07-18 How to leverage existing resources to meet the current and future needs of cities Crumbling streets and bridges Poorly performing schools and inadequate social services These are common complaints in cities which too often struggle just to keep the lights on much less make the long term investments necessary for future generations It doesn t have to be this way This book by two internationally recognized experts in public finance describes a new way of restoring economic vitality and financial stability to cities using steps that already have been proven remarkably successful The key is unlocking social human and economic wealth that cities already own but is out of sight or hidden A focus on existing public wealth helps to shift attention and resources from short term spending to longer term investments that can vastly raise the quality of life for many generations of urban residents A crucial first step is to understand a city's balance sheet too few cities comprehend how valuable a working tool this can be With this in hand taxpayers politicians and investors can better recognize the long term consequences of political decisions and make choices that mobilize real returns rather than rely on more taxes debt or austerity Another hidden asset is real estate Even poor cities own large swathes of poorly utilized land or they control underperforming utilities and other commercial assets Most cities could more than double their investments with smarter use of these commercial assets Managing the city's assets smartly through the authors proposed Urban Wealth Funds at arm's length from short term political influence will enable cities to ramp up much needed infrastructure investments

The Air Transport Industry in Africa William Kiema, 2025-11-05 This book provides legal analysis of the multilateral liberalisation of the air transport industry in Africa within the framework of the African Union Agenda 2063 initiative the Single African Air Transport Market SAATM Offering a detailed examination of the regulatory framework and policy considerations that have shaped the political economy of air transport in Africa the book offers a comparative analysis with the European Union EU and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN By highlighting the need for a tailored approach to air transport liberalisation in Africa it underscores the importance of considering the continent's unique socio political context diverse values identities circumstances and challenges arising from its vast and varied landscape The book proposes a principled approach to the implementation of the SAATM initiatives and calls on stakeholders to consider holistic implementation that favours the principle of variable geometry stakeholder engagement and alignment with Agenda 2063 It also emphasises the significance of supporting aviation policies such as safety security financing competition and environmental sustainability The Air Transport Industry in Africa will be of interest to researchers in the fields of aviation law economic law and regional integration in Africa

Teaching Transnational Cinema Katarzyna Marciniak, Bruce Bennett, 2016-03-10 This collection of essays offers a pioneering analysis of the political and conceptual complexities of teaching transnational cinema in university classrooms around the world In their exploration of a wide range of films from different national and regional contexts contributors reflect on the practical and pedagogical challenges of teaching about immigrant identities transnational encounters foreignness cosmopolitanism and citizenship terrorism border politics legality and race Probing the value of cinema in interdisciplinary academic study and the changing strategies and philosophies of teaching in the university this volume positions itself at the cutting edge of transnational film studies

The New Urban Crisis Richard Florida, 2017-08-31 Never before have our cities been as important as they are now The drivers of innovation and growth they are essential to the prosperity of nations But they are also destructive plunging us into housing crises and deepening inequality How can we keep the good and break free of the bad In this bracingly original work of research and analysis leading urbanist Richard Florida explores the roots of this new crisis and puts forward a plan to make this the century of the fairer thriving metropolis Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another In fact as the world urbanizes urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice In this book Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions This however neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries Ethiopia Rwanda and Uganda Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained book length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them Through a focus on infrastructure investment urban propertyscapes street level trading economies and urban political protest it offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change On the Politics of Ignorance in Nursing and Health Care Amelie Perron, Trudy Rudge, 2015-08-14 Ignorance is mostly framed as a void a gap to be filled with appropriate knowledge In nursing and health care concerns about ignorance fuel searches for knowledge expected to bring certainty to care provision preventing risk accidents or mistakes This unique volume turns the focus on ignorance as something productive in itself and works to understand how ignorance and its operations shape what we do and do not know Focusing explicitly on nursing practice and its organization within contemporary health settings Perron and Rudge draw on contemporary interdisciplinary debates to discuss social processes informed by ignorance ignorance's temporal and spatial boundaries and how ignorance defines what can be known by specific groups with differential access to power and social status Using feminist postcolonial and historical analyses this book challenges dominant conceptualizations and discusses a range of nonknowledges in nursing and health work including uncertainty abjection denial deceit and taboo It also explores the way dominant research and managerial practices perpetuate ignorance in healthcare organisations In health contexts productive forms of ignorance can help to future proof understandings about the management of healthy sick bodies and those caring for them Linking these considerations to nurses approaches to challenges in practice this book helps to unpack the power situated in the use of ignorance and pays special attention to what is safe or unsafe to know from both individual and organisational perspectives On the Politics of Ignorance in Nursing and Health Care is an innovative read for all students and researchers in nursing and the health sciences interested in understanding more about transactions between epistemologies knowledge building practices and research in the health domain It will also be of interest to scholars involved in the interdisciplinary study of ignorance Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente, 2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language The Coming of Neo-Feudalism Joel

Kotkin, 2023-01-10 Following a remarkable epoch of greater dispersion of wealth and opportunity we are inexorably returning towards a more feudal era marked by greater concentration of wealth and property reduced upward mobility demographic stagnation and increased dogmatism If the last seventy years saw a massive expansion of the middle class not only in America but in much of the developed world today that class is declining and a new more hierarchical society is emerging The new class structure resembles that of Medieval times At the apex of the new order are two classes a reborn clerical elite the clerisy which dominates the upper part of the professional ranks universities media and culture and a new aristocracy led by tech oligarchs with unprecedented wealth and growing control of information These two classes correspond to the old French First and Second Estates Below these two classes lies what was once called the Third Estate This includes the yeomanry which is made up largely of small businesspeople minor property owners skilled workers and private sector oriented professionals Ascendant for much of modern history this class is in decline while those below them the new Serfs grow in numbers a vast expanding property less population The trends are mounting but we can still reverse them if people understand what is actually occurring and have the capability to oppose them Tribalism and Political Power in the

Gulf Courtney Freer, Alanoud al-Sharekh, 2021-09-23 Gulf societies are often described as being intensely tribal However in discussions of state building and national identity the role of tribalism and tribal identity is often overlooked This book analyses the political role of tribes in Kuwait Qatar and the UAE aiming to understand the degree to which tribes hinder or advance popular participation in government and to what extent they exert domestic political power The research traces the historical relationship between ruling elites and nomadic tribes and by constructing political histories of these states and analysing the role of tribes in domestic political life and social hierarchies reveals how they serve as major political actors in the Gulf A key focus of the book is understanding the extent to which societies in the Gulf have become re bedouinised in the modern era and how this has shaped these states political processes and institutions The book explores the roles that tribes play in the development of progressive citizenship regimes and policymaking today and how they are likely to be influential in the future within rentier environments

Seeking Equality John Harles, 2017-10-25 Seeking Equality compares economic inequality in the United States and Canada The North American neighbors have much in common socially politically and economically yet Canadians enjoy significantly higher levels of equality and material well being Harles explores the values and policy decisions that have influenced these different economic outcomes Drawing on the Canadian experience he explains why a yawning gap between the very rich and the rest should be cause for civic anxiety in the United States and what can be done about it
