Resuscitation of African Languages Isaac Mhute,Zilibele Mtumane,Vimbai Moreblessing Matiza,2025-03-15 This book argues the case for indigenous African languages which have been stripped of their importance and are now often overshadowed both officially through governmental language policies and informally through attitudes and ideologies by former colonial languages The authors present case studies from a range of countries in the region arguing that languages tell us peoples identities and that by dropping their own languages in favour of foreign and imperialist languages they lose their culture history and identity as well The book addresses many of the challenges currently associated with African languages with the intention of influencing policy and practice in favour of their resuscitation This book will be of interest to policy makers academics and tertiary students in fields including Language Policy and Planning Language Revitalisation Heritage Language Learning Indigenous and Endangered Languages and Language Attitudes and Ideologies

Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Kangira, Jairos,Nhemachena, Artwell,2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation

Post-Covid Schooling Clive Harber, 2021-11-12 This book questions the consensus that contemporary formal schooling is of clear cut and undoubted benefit to pupils During lockdowns caused by the global COVID 19 pandemic governments and various other actors have been trying to get children and young people back into school as quickly as possible While there are any numerous beneficial aspects of schooling the book asks whether accepted models and practices of schools should change in a post COVID world By critically examining the everyday nature of normal schooling the book demonstrates that many aspects of schooling are not necessarily beneficial to pupils and can be directly harmful in doing so the author imagines a future of schooling that could better support and benefit its students

Power Jane Golley, Linda Jaivin, Paul J. Farrelly, Sharon Strange, 2019-04-11 In 2018 the People s Republic of China PRC was by most measures more powerful than at any other time in its history and had become one of the most powerful countries in the world Its economy faced serious challenges including from the ongoing trade war with the US but still ranked as the world s second largest Its Belt and Road Initiative meanwhile continued to carve paths of influence and economic integration across several continents A deft combination of policy investment and entrepreneurship has also turned the PRC into a global techno power It aims with a good chance of success at becoming a global science and technology leader by 2049 one hundred years from the founding of the PRC In surveying the various ways in which the Party state wields its hard soft and sharp power the China Story Yearbook Power offers readers a sense of the diversity of power at work both in China and abroad Citizens of the PRC have long negotiated the state's influence increasingly diaspora communities and other actors are now being subject to its might As with previous editions in the series we place important developments in historical context and adopt a cross disciplinary approach it is our view that economy and politics cannot be divorced from culture history and society The Yearbook provides accessible analysis of the main events and trends of the year and is an essential tool for understanding China's growing power and influence around the world Annual Index ,2007
