2014 November Memorandum Of Tourism:

Tourism and Gentrification in Contemporary Metropolises Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2017-06-14 Tourism gentrification is a critical shaping force of socio economic and contemporary urban landscapes This book aims to be the first substantive text on this subject explaining the multiple and complex relationships between tourism and gentrification and their outcomes and manifestations in contemporary metropolises This is achieved by drawing on in depth case analyses addressing the different issues at stake Part I deals with the manifestations of tourism gentrification and the ways it affects urban landscapes through heritagization and urban regeneration strategies Part II looks at the correlations between tourism gentrification and culture Finally the last two parts aim to identify and examine forms and expressions of tourism gentrification distinguishing among the actors beneficiaries and victims of the phenomenon while looking at its implications for intra metropolitan territories and metropolitan governance The book approaches these issues in an innovative way by looking at a variety of metropolises in a diverse range of countries and by dealing with the different relations and management issues generated by gentrification in relation to tourism Through interdisciplinary approaches this groundbreaking text sheds light on the role tourism plays in contemporary metropolises furthering knowledge of urban tourism For these reasons it will be of particular interest to scholars and students of tourism urban studies geography anthropology and sociology OECD Tourism Trends and Policies 2016 OECD, 2016-03-09 Tourism Trends and Policies published biennially analyses tourism performance and major policy trends initiatives and reforms across 50 OECD and partner countries providing up to date tourism data and analysis Film Tourism in Asia Sangkyun Kim, Stijn Reijnders, 2017-10-13 This book focuses on film tourism the phenomenon of people visiting locations from popular film or TV series It is based on a unique Asian perspective encompassing case studies from around the pan Asian region including China Taiwan India Japan South Korea Thailand Hong Kong Indonesia and Singapore By focusing emphatically on film tourism in the non West this book offers a timely and crucial contribution to a more comprehensive understanding of the relation between film culture and place particularly in light of the increased volume of media production and consumption across Asia and the consequent film tourism destinations that are currently popping up across the Asian continent Management of Training and Development in Hospitality Industry Archana Acharya, Handbook on Heritage, Sustainable Tourism and Digital Media De Ascaniis, Silvia, Cantoni, Lorenzo, 2022-02-04 Exploring the impact of the rise of digital media over the last few decades this timely Handbook highlights the major role it plays in preserving and protecting heritage as well as its ability to promote and support sustainable tourism at heritage sites Particularly relevant at this time due to the diffusion of smartphones and use of social media chapters look at the experience and expectation of being always on and how this interacts with heritage and tourism Marine Transboundary Conservation and Protected Areas Peter Mackelworth, 2016-04-28 The marine environment does not naturally respect arbitrary international boundaries The establishment and management of transboundary marine protected areas therefore presents major governance challenges This book analyses a series of marine transboundary conservation initiatives embedded in varying contextual situations to examine the underlying reasons for their success or failure Utilising an adapted pathways of influence framework it provides insights into the development of marine transboundary conservation initiatives looking at the effectiveness of international rules international norms and discourse market forces and direct access to policy making Examples come from a wide range of jurisdictions including territorial seas continental shelves exclusive economic zones and areas beyond national jurisdiction Case studies include initiatives in the Coral Triangle West Africa Central America the Wadden Sea the Red Sea and the Mediterranean Sea In addition the authors assess the potential for developing wider international cooperation as a result of relationships forged through involvement within these marine transboundary conservation initiatives

The State and Cosmopolitan Responsibilities Richard Beardsworth, Garrett Wallace Brown, Richard Shapcott, 2019 This book explores the role that states might play in promoting a cosmopolitan condition as an agent of cosmopolitanism rather than an obstacle to it In doing so the book seeks to develop recent arguments in favour of locating cosmopolitan moral and political responsibility at the state level as either an alternative to or a corollary of cosmopolitanism as it is more commonly understood qua requiring transnational or global bearers of responsibility As a result the contributions in this volume see an on going role for the state but also its transformation perhaps only partially into a more cosmopolitan minded institution instead of a purely national or particularistic one It therefore makes the case that the state as a form of political community can be reconciled with various form of cosmopolitan responsibility In this way the book will address the question of how states in the present and in the future can be better bearers of cosmopolitan responsibilities

Tourism, Land Grabs and Displacement Andreas Neef, 2021-05-09 This book examines the global scope of tourism related grabbing of land and other natural resources Tourism is often presented as a peaceful and benevolent sector that brings people from different cultural backgrounds together and contributes to employment poverty alleviation and global sustainable development This book sheds light on the lesser known and much darker side of tourism as it unfolds in the Global South While there is no doubt that tourism has been an engine of economic growth for many so called developing countries this has often come at the cost of widespread dispossession and displacement of Indigenous and non indigenous communities In many countries of the Global South tourism development is increasingly prioritised by governments businesses international financial institutions and donors over the legitimate land and resource rights of local people This book examines the actors drivers mechanisms discourses and impacts of tourism related land grabbing and displacement drawing on more than thirty case studies from Latin America and the Caribbean sub Saharan Africa South and Southeast Asia the Middle East and the Southwest Pacific The book provides solid grounds for an informed debate on how different actors are responsible for the adverse impacts of tourism on land rights infringements what forms of resistance have been deployed against tourism related land grabs and displacement and how those who have violated local land and resource rights can be held accountable Tourism Land Grabs and Displacement will be essential reading for students and scholars of land and resource grabbing tourism studies development studies and sustainable development more broadly as well as policymakers and practitioners working in those fields

Treaties in Force United States Department of State,2006-08 State Department Publication Released 2006 Lists treaties and other international agreements of the United States on record in the Department of State on January 1 2006 which had not expired by their terms or which had not been denounced by the parties replaced or superseded by other agreements or otherwise definitely terminated Published annually China's Footprints in Southeast Asia Ma. Serena I. Diokno,Xinhuang Xiao,Alan Hao Yang,2019 The countries that make up Southeast Asia are seeing an incredible resurgence in their economic power Over the past fifty years their combined wealth has reached the same level as the United Kingdom and taken together they are on track to become the fifth largest world economy But that stability and success has drawn the attention of the second largest world economy China The emerging superpower is increasingly involved in Southeast Asia as part of the ongoing global realignment As China deepens its influence across the region the countries of Southeast Asia are negotiating spaces for themselves in order to respond to or even challenge China s power This is the first book to survey China s growing role in Southeast Asia along multiple dimensions It looks closely and skeptically at the multitude of ways that China has built connections in the region including through trade foreign aid and cultural diplomacy It incorporates examples such as the operation of Confucius Institutes in Indonesia or the promotion of the concept of guangxi China s Footprints in Southeast Asia raises the question of whether the Chinese efforts are helpful or disruptive and explores who it is that really stands to benefit from these relationships The answers differ from country to country but as this volume suggests the footprint of hard and soft power always leaves a lasting mark on other countries institutions Treaties in Force ,2016

Cyprus and the Financial Crisis John Theodore,Jonathan Theodore,2016-01-12 The 2012 2013 economic crisis in the Republic of Cyprus is commonly attributed to a number of factors including the exposure of Cypriot banks to over leveraged local property companies the knock on effect of the Greek government debt crisis and international credit rating agencies downgrading the Cypriot government s bond credit status What followed was unexpected and controversial a bailout on condition of a one time bank deposit levy on all uninsured deposits in the country s second largest bank the Cyprus Popular Bank and on the uninsured deposits of large proportion of the island s largest commercial bank the Bank of Cyprus Many have questioned the implications of Cyprus ties with the Russian financial system as well as the draconian and unprecedented bailout terms imposed on the Cypriot population by the Eurozone There has been little written from the Cypriot perspective on these events This book presents a study of the events surrounding the recent Cypriot Financial Crisis and its impact on the Eurozone It incorporates insights from leading protagonists in the Cypriot government and banking sectors and focuses on qualitative research to assess the events that formed the backdrop of the crisis The book analyzes the policies of many public and private institutions and presents the crisis alongside other Eurozone bailouts to compare and contextualize the ongoing issues Cyprus and the Financial Crisis also explains the political and historical backdrop of the events including the wider Cypriot experience since the 1974 invasion and the unravelling financial relationship between Cyprus Greece and Russia It incorporates the views of Cypriots from a wide and diverse spectrum and presents the resilience of the island in fighting back to beat forecasts for recovery helped by the Eldorado of gas finds off its southern shores

Domínguez,Rafael Fernández de Castro,2016-03-02 Drawing on the research and experience of fifteen internationally recognized Latin America scholars this insightful text presents an overview of inter American relations during the first two decades of the twenty first century This unique collection identifies broad changes in the international system that have had significant effects in the Western Hemisphere including issues of politics and economics the securitization of U S foreign policy balancing U S primacy the wider impact of the world beyond the Americas especially the rise of China and the complexities of relationships between neighbors The second edition of Contemporary U S Latin American Relations focuses on U S neighbors near and far Mexico Cuba Argentina Brazil Chile Colombia Peru and Venezuela Each chapter addresses a country s relations with the United States and each considers themes that are unique to that country s bilateral relations as well as those themes that are more general to the relations of Latin America as a whole The book also features new chapters on transnational criminal violence the Latino diasporas in the United States and U S Latin American migration This cohesive and accessible volume is required reading for Latin American politics students and scholars alike

Uganda International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2015-07-07 This 2015 Article IV Consultation highlights that Uganda s recent economic performance has been favorable Real GDP growth is projected at 5.24 percent for FY2014/15 supported by a fiscal stimulus and a recovery in private consumption Annual core inflation increased to 4.75 percent in May from very depressed levels mainly fueled by the shilling depreciation pass through The current account deficit is set to widen to about 9 percent of GDP reflecting increasing capital goods imports but international reserves remain adequate The outlook is promising Growth is estimated at 5.75 percent in FY2015/16 and an average 6.25 percent over the medium term

The Report: Kenya 2017 , As the largest economy in the EAC and COMESA in terms of GDP Kenya has positioned itself as a major economic power in sub Saharan Africa Traditionally a largely agrarian economy Kenya has quickly entrenched its position as a manufacturing logistics and technology hub in the region and this diversification forms a solid platform from which the government can generate economic growth over the coming years The resolution of the electoral process improving business confidence and strong private consumption are likely to support GDP expansion over 2018 and into 2019 In April 2018 the IMF estimated the economy would expand by 5.5% in 2018 and 6% in 2019 compared to 4.8% in 2017 Official Gazette Philippines,2013

Challenges of European External Energy Governance with Emerging Powers Michèle Knodt,Nadine

Piefer,2016-03-03 In a multipolar world with growing demand for energy not least by Emerging Powers such as Brazil India China or South Africa BICS questions of EU external energy governance would at first hand appear to be a high priority Yet reality tells a different story the EU's geographical focus remains on adjacent countries in the European neighbourhood and on issues related to energy security Despite being Strategic Partners and engaging in energy dialogues it seems that the EU is lacking strategic vision and is not perceived as a major actor in energy cooperation with the BICS Thus political momentum for energy cooperation and joint governance of scarce resources is vanishing Resulting from three years of international interdisciplinary research cooperation among academics and practitioners in Europe and the BICS countries within a project funded by the Volkswagen Foundation this volume addresses one of the greatest global challenges Specific focus lies on the bilateral energy dialogues and Strategic Partnerships between the EU and Emerging Powers regarding bilateral inter and transnational energy cooperation Furthermore the analysis provides policy recommendations in order to tap the full potential of energy cooperation between the EU and Brazil India China and South Africa Memories Set in

Stone—How Visitors Make Sense of Memorials Larissa Hugentobler,2025-09-30 In this open access book Larissa Hugentobler explores the world of public memorials highly visible and at times contentious media which communicate a nation's values and ideals its public memory By celebrating a selection of a nation's history the memorial landscape has long rendered marginalized groups virtually invisible This book focuses on two rare celebratory U S memorials in Washington DC dedicated to a member of a marginalized community Dr Martin Luther King Jr The author explores how visitors experience the two cultural sites including their narratives about King and the Civil Rights Movement For a holistic understanding Hugentobler combines analyses of visitor experiences on site and on Instagram with expert interviews and autoethnographies This allows for insights into the importance of celebratory memorials to individuals from marginalized communities and why those memorials matter to visitors By acknowledging that the memorial experience is not limited to the time and space of a visit this book begins to answer the urgent question of the roles of the offline and online realms in commemoration and highlights how each can contribute to a memorial landscape that is meaningful to a variety of people
