Annual Report Of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector Of Schools:

The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in Wales. Current Edition Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools in Wales, 1998

The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills 2007/08 Great Britain. Office for Standards in Education, 2008-11 With the establishment on 1 April 2007 of the Office for Standards in Education Children's Services and Skills Ofsted's responsibilities for inspecting children's services changed substantially with Ofsted now regulating and inspecting childcare children's social care and provision for learners of all ages This report covers the first full year of reporting on the organisation's new remit The first section presents an evaluation of the quality and standards in care early education schools colleges adult learning and skills and children's services It is based on evidence from more than 45 000 inspections and regulatory visits in 2007/08 The second section draws on Ofsted's thematic inspections and surveys in the different areas of its remit This section evaluates the effectiveness with which providers seek to address three important matters improving the life chances of the least advantaged members of society through excellence in provision safeguarding children and young people from neglect abuse and other forms of harm and enabling learners to acquire the skills they need to succeed in their working lives The Chief Inspector is encouraged by the recognition that much is going well for so many children young people and adult learners but frustrated that there is still too much that is patently inadequate and too many settings and institutions where the rate of improvement is unacceptably slow

The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools 2005/06 Great Britain: Office for Standards in Education, 2006-11-22 The remit of the Office for Standards in Education OFSTED is to improve standards and quality of childcare and education for learners up to 19 years of age through regular inspection some of which is carried out jointly with other inspectorates This annual report covers the year 2005/06 and includes sections on the quality of education and care covering such areas as childcare and early learning maintained schools independent schools further education colleges initial teacher training The second section looks at issues in education and care as they apply to primary and secondary schools as well as post 16 settings including local children's services healthy eating physical health drug education in schools sexual health behaviour and anti bullying strategies

The annual report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills 2010/11 Great Britain: Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills, 2011-11-22 Ofsted today publishes the Annual Report 2010/11 drawing on over 31 000 inspection visits across the schools early years children's social care and learning and skills sectors in England Launched by Her Majesty's Chief Inspector Miriam Rosen this in depth analysis provides an insight into the quality of those services for children and learners what is working well and what needs to improve The report highlights how an inadequate inspection judgement whether for a children's home or a school a college or a nursery can be an important catalyst for change For example the total number of schools in a category of concern that is judged to be in special measures or being given a notice to improve reduced from 553

at the end of last year to 451 at the end of August 2011 Over a fifth of schools judged inadequate at their previous inspection were found to be good or better when inspected again this year In addition schools are now emerging from special measures faster than the previous year after an average of 18 months rather than 20 In inspections of local authorities children s social care where Ofsted completed the second full year of unannounced inspection of contact referral and assessment arrangements weaknesses identified the previous year had been addressed in the great majority of cases The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools 2004/05 Great Britain: Office for Standards in Education,2005-10-19 The remit of the Office for Standards in Education OFSTED is to improve standards and quality of childcare and education for learners up to 19 years of age through regular inspection some of which is carried out jointly with other inspectorates This annual report covers the year 2004 05 and includes sections on childcare and early learning primary and maintained nursery schools secondary schools special schools pupil referral units further education colleges initial teacher training local education authorities Also included is a section on surveys and themes examining national education strategies in schools in different areas A final section takes a retrospective view on inspection and the contribution OFSTED has made to education over the past 13 years An accompanying CD ROM includes detailed reports on subjects in schools and curriculum areas in colleges

The annual report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills 2006/07 Great Britain. Office for Standards in Education,2007-10-17 This publication brings together OFSTED inspection and regulation data covering the period from September 2006 to August 2007 With the establishment on 1 April 2007 of the Office for Standards in Education Children s Services and Skills OFSTED s responsibilities for inspecting children s services changed substantially with OFSTED now regulating and inspecting childcare children s social care and provision for learners of all ages The first part of the report summarises the outcomes of routine inspections and regulatory visits across OFSTED s remit The second part of the report examines three important themes in education and care i improved life chances of children and older learners from disadvantaged backgrounds ii the experience of children and young people where education and care develops awareness of personal cultural and national identity iii the effectiveness of education and training for young people entering work The report also refers to the national test results for 2007 The annual report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools Great Britain. Office for Standards in Education,1992 The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools Great Britain. Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools,2004 The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools Great Britain. Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools,2005 The Annual Report of Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Schools Great Britain. Office for Standards in Education,Office for standards in education (GB).,2002 The remit of the Office for Standards in Education OFSTED is to improve standards of achievement and quality of education in England through regular independent inspection of schools public reporting and informed independent advice The annual report for 2000 01 considers current issues of importance contains the evidence from the year s inspections and identifies particularly successful schools Overall the report finds there are continuing improvements in the quality of teaching and in the leadership and management of schools The achievements of pupils with special educational needs are found to show improvements both in special and mainstream schools The problems in the recruitment and in particular the retention of teachers are noted The report highlights two key concerns regarding 1 the gap between the highest and lowest performing schools at secondary level 2 and the under achievement levels amongst certain groups of pupils including those from ethnic minorities children in care children from traveller communities as well as a significant number of missing pupils of whom very little is known
