Annual Report Polbank Poland:

Corporate Social Responsibility in Poland Aneta Długopolska-Mikonowicz, Sylwia Przytuła, Christopher Stehr, 2018-12-19
This book examines the development and adoption of corporate social responsibility CSR in Polish businesses and social and environmental organizations and analyzes the corresponding impact at the strategic and operational level in these fields. It presents the status quo of CSR in Poland from three main perspectives. The first presents theoretical works based on current research and recent advances while the next takes a closer look at empirical findings in the different fields of CSR e.g. finance reporting law and presents best practices from major international companies operating on the Polish market. Lastly it presents a range of case studies from small and medium companies and NGOs in Poland and gives an outlook on the future development. Readers will benefit from an in depth discussion of the opportunities and challenges that businesses and organizations in Poland are currently facing with regard to traditional national values and the influx of new cultural and social dimensions and patterns produced by international businesses entering the Polish market. Taken together the lessons learned case studies and snapshots of the latest developments provide a comprehensive overview of the state of the art of CSR in Poland as well as a blueprint that can be applied to other Eastern European countries. New Serial Titles, 1986 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949 Whitaker's Cumulative Book List, 1955 Annual Report 2000, 2001 Annual Report 2002, 2003 Annual report Narodowy Bank Polski.
