Histoire des Togolais. Des origines aux années 1960 (Tome 4 : Le refus de l'ordre colonial) GAYIBOR Nicoué, 2011-06-28 Religious Activism on Campuses in Togo and Benin Frédérick

Madore, 2025-03-31 The interplay between religion and student activism at the universities of Abomey Calavi Benin and Lomé Togo has often been overlooked although faith based organisations and student unions have coexisted since the 1970s Based on interviews with different generations of activists this book uncovers the neglected history of Christian and Muslim student associations on these campuses originally strongholds of leftist and secular ideologies It analyses the emergence of these groups under a Marxist Leninist regime in Benin and a one party dictatorship in Togo and explores the implications of growing religiosity for these public universities as secular institutions The history of these associations reveals the campus as a microcosm reflecting wider national socio political life while also highlighting the importance of translocal factors in shaping the internal dynamics of these groups Amidst the massification of university enrolments and rising graduate unemployment faith based associations have come to provide more than religious guidance Increasingly they offer a social curriculum providing a space for socialisation and a set of skills norms and moral values that complement the secular academic curriculum
