Ans Dindemnisation Des Victimes Dinfractions:

Victim Policies and Criminal Justice on the Road to Restorative Justice Tony Peters, 2001 This edited volume contains 22 papers organized into three sections under the following headings part I is entitled On Promoting Victim Policies Part II On Reforming Criminal Justice and Part III On Restorative Justice All three areas are ones to which Tony Peters former Professor of Criminology in Leuven has made a significant contribution and for which he is known as an international authority During his long and productive academic career Tony Peters led many struggles for criminal justice reform He was a leading figure in the movement to recognize crime victims plight and to reaffirm their rights In Belgium he spearheaded the early initiatives in restorative justice and became one of its outspoken proponents nationally and internationally There is no doubt that these three major topics and the various developments and reforms that are addressed in the papers will dominate the thinking about and the practice of criminal justice in the years to come Thus in addition to paying homage to a congenial friend and an illustrious colleague it is hoped that this book will appeal and prove useful to all those who have an interest in victims issues in criminal justice reform and last but not least in the promising paradigm of restorative justice

Damages for Violations of Human Rights Ewa Bagińska, 2015-10-20 This volume analyses the legal grounds premises and extent of pecuniary compensation for violations of human rights in national legal systems The scope of comparison includes liability regimes in general and in detail the correlation between pecuniary remedies available under international law and under domestic law and special alternative compensation systems All sources of human rights violations are embraced including historical injustices and systematical and gross violations The book is a collection of nineteen contributions written by public international law international human rights and private law experts covering fifteen European jurisdictions including Central and Eastern Europe the United States Israel and EU law The contributions initially prepared for the 19th International Congress of Comparative law in Vienna 2014 present the latest developments in legislation scholarship and case law concerning domestic causes of action in cases of human rights abuses The book concludes with a comparative report which assesses the developments in tort law and public liability law the role of the constitutionalisation of the right to damages as well as the court practice related to the process of enforcement of human rights through monetary remedies This country by country comparison allows to consider whether the value of protection of human rights as expressed in international treaties ius cogens and in national constitutional laws justifies the conclusion that the interests at stake should enjoy protection under the existing civil liability rules or that a new cause of action or even a whole new set of rules should be created in national systems

Reparation and Victim-focused Social Work Bryan Williams, 2001-09-18 The contributors to this book bring together research material from the wide range of disciplines involved and present an overview of the information needed for effective practice They examine the practicalities of reparation orders family group conferencing restorative cautioning schemes and the workings of youth offending teams
