

ANSWER KEY

Rutherford B. Hayes' Presidency

Directions: Define these terms and how they relate to Hayes' presidency.

Jim Crow Laws:

The south began passing Jim Crow laws that segregated or separated black Americans from White Americans. Hayes kept to his word and chose not to interfere with Southern Politics. Northern Republicans grew frustrated with Hayes.

Patronage:

Leading up to Hayes, patronage was a popular practice. Patronage is when a political leader gives government jobs to friends, relatives, and political supporters. Instead, Hayes instituted a system where civil service jobs went to non-political people. Hayes started civil services exams to evaluate people for these jobs. Hayes' civil service reforms were not popular among politicians.

Monroe Doctrine:

Hayes faced many foreign policy decisions while President. Hayes held on firmly to the Monroe Doctrine when France was trying to have some power over the construction of the Panama Canal. The Monroe Doctrine said that no European powers could have any influence over the Western Hemisphere.

Chinese Exclusion Acts:

Many Americans, especially railroad workers, blamed Chinese immigrants for their lower wages. A lot of Chinese immigrants were coming to the United States for jobs. To calm American fears, Congress passed the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1879. Hayes vetoed this law because he believed it was unfair and China should be involved in the negotiations.

Native Assimilation:

To create peace between native populations and western Settlers, Hayes supported native assimilation. Hayes felt that forcing indigenous people to become more like white Americans would help them be more peaceful and self-sufficient.
