12 Highlander Repair Manual:

Freedom's Teacher Katherine Mellen Charron, 2009 Septima Poinsette Clark's gift to the civil rights movement was education. In the mid 1950s this former public school teacher developed a citizenship training program that enabled thousands of African Americans to register to vote and then to link the power of the ballot to concrete strategies for individual and communal empowerment. Clark who began her own teaching career in 1916 grounded her approach in the philosophy and practice of southern black activist educators in the decades leading up to the 1950s and 1960s and then trained a committed cadre of grassroots black women to lead this literacy revolution in community stores, beauty shops and churches throughout the South. In this engaging biography Katherine Charron tells the story of Clark from her coming of age in the South Carolina lowcountry to her activism with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in the movement's heyday. The enhanced electronic version of the book draws from archives, libraries and the author's personal collection and includes nearly 100 letters, documents, photographs, newspaper articles and interview excerpts embedding each in the text where it will be most meaningful. Featuring more than 60 audio clips, more than 2.5 hours total from oral history interviews with 15 individuals including Clark herself, the enhanced e-book redefines the idea of the talking book. Watch the video below to see a demonstration of the enhanced ebook.
