12 Syllabus For Ghanaian Jhs:

Values and Valuing in Mathematics Education Philip Clarkson, Wee Tiong Seah, JeongSuk Pang, 2019-04-24 This engaging open access book discusses how a values and valuing perspective can facilitate a more effective mathematics pedagogical experience and allows readers to explore multiple applications of the values perspective across different education systems It also clearly shows that teaching mathematics involves not only reasoning and feelings but also students interactions with their cultural setting and each other The book brings together the work of world leaders and new thinkers in mathematics educational research to improve the learning and teaching of mathematics Addressing themes such as discovering hidden cultural values a multicultural society and methodological issues in the investigation of values in mathematics it stimulates readers to consider these topics in cross cultural ways and offers suggestions for research and classroom practice It is a valuable resource for scholars of mathematics education from early childhood through to higher education and an inspiring read for all mathematics teachers

Educational Curricula Jennifer N. Casey, 2008 In formal education a curriculum plural curricula is the set of courses and their content offered at a school or university As an idea curriculum stems from the Latin word for race course referring to the course of deeds and experiences through which children grow and mature in becoming adults Crucial to the curriculum is the definition of the course objectives that usually are expressed as learning outcomes and normally include the program s assessment strategy These outcomes and assessments are grouped as units or modules and therefore the curriculum comprises a collection of such units each in turn comprising a specialised specific part of the curriculum So a typical curriculum includes communications numeracy information technology and social skills units with specific specialised teaching of each This book presents research on educational curricula from around the world

Basic Education beyond the Millennium Development Goals in Ghana David Balwanz, Peter Darvas, 2013-12-11 Expansion of basic education in Ghana was unprecedented and brought the country to the forefront in education in Africa The report provides analysis lessons and policy options to developing a post MDG strategic agenda for basic education

History Can Bite Denise Bantrovato, Karina V. Korostelina, Martina Schulze, 2016-10-10 The volume provides critical insights into approaches adopted by curricula textbooks and teachers around the world when teaching about the past in the wake of civil war and mass violence discerning some of the key challenges and opportunities involved in such endeavors The contributors discuss ways in which history teaching has acted as a political tool that has at times been guilty of exacerbating inter group conflicts It also highlights history teaching as an important component of reconciliation attempts showcasing examples of curricular reform and textbook revision after conflict and discussing how the contestations and difficulties surrounding such processes were addressed in different post conflict societies
