

Study Guide for the Midterm in EDU 203

Fall 2022

The Midterm exam (to be taken in class on Tuesday, October 18th) will be based on the 9 questions below. Be aware that you will be asked to answer four questions in total; some questions you will be able to choose, but some questions will be chosen for you. In other words, you should be prepared to answer ALL of the questions on this study guide, because some questions will be assigned for you to answer, and some you will be able to choose.

1. Ebonics/ African American English

- Define Ebonics (also known as African American English) and describe the issues that result when teachers disallow use of AAE in classrooms
- Describe several teacher strategies for supporting AAE users when using AAE in the classroom and also when learning Dominant American English
- Compare Delpit's strategies to those of Ladson-Billings. How do they resemble each other, even though Ladson-Billings does not discuss Ebonics or AAE?

2. Culturally Relevant/ Sustaining Pedagogy

- Explain the meaning and importance of "culturally relevant/ sustaining" pedagogy using specific examples from the readings.
- Then, describe at least three specific teaching practices that reflect a culturally relevant/ sustaining perspective.
- You must connect to at least three of the following authors in your response: Bucholtz, Casillas & Lee; Delpit; Ladson-Billings; Paris & Alim.

3. Ableism

- What is ableism, according to Thomas Hehir?
- Discuss at least two historical examples of ableism (e.g. two groups) from Hehir's article or from your outside knowledge. Be specific when describing these issues by describing both attitudes and practices towards these groups.
- Then provide your own (different) example of ableism that may still be going on today. What are the attitudes and practices associated with your example?
- And lastly, what are alternative attitudes and practices that we could promote to combat ableism in this instance?
- Connect to at least one other author in your response (Suggested authors: Ashby, Collins, Danforth)
