20th Century Retailing In Downtown Grand Rapids Images Of America:

20th-Century Retailing in Downtown Grand Rapids Michael Hauser and Marianne Weldon, 2014 Grand Rapids Michigan was the center for shopping in western Michigan with department stores five and dimes and more until the advent of the shopping mall For decades downtown Grand Rapids enjoyed a long run in the limelight as the epicenter of shopping in western Michigan The vibrant Monroe Avenue corridor included three homegrown department stores several chain department stores five and dime stores and scores of clothing and specialty retailers It weathered mother nature wars the Great Depression the advent of neighborhood shopping centers and civil disturbances but the one change it could not overcome was the regional shopping mall The Twentieth-Century American City Jon C. Teaford, 2016-09-15 Touching on aging central cities technoburbs and the ongoing conflict between inner city poverty and urban boosterism The Twentieth Century American City offers a broad accessible overview of America's persistent struggle for a better city Asian Americans in Michigan Victor Jew, Sook Wilkinson, 2015-03-16 Readers interested in Michigan history sociology and Asian American studies will enjoy this volume Artist's and Graphic Designer's Market, 1995 Mary Cox, Alice P. Buening, 1994 Formerly Artist's Market this is an indispensable directory for fine artists graphic designers illustrators and cartoonists It lists 2 500 buyers of art from magazines to galleries to greeting card publishers and tells how much each pays Also features copyright information submission advice and more American Lumberman, 1929 Italian American Experience in New Haven, The Anthony V. Riccio, 2009-01-08 Using interviews and photographs Anthony Riccio provides a vital supplement to our understanding of the Italian immigrant experience in the United States In conversations around kitchen tables and in social clubs members of New Haven's Italian American community evoke the rhythms of the streets and the pulse of life in the old ethnic neighborhoods They describe the events that shaped the twentieth century the Spanish Flu pandemic the Great Depression and World War II along with the private histories of immigrant women who toiled under terrible working conditions in New Haven's shirt factories who sacrificed dreams of education and careers for the economic well being of their families This is a compelling social cultural and political history of a vibrant immigrant community Grand Rapids Furniture Christian G. Carron, Grand Rapids Public Museum, 1998 Locating the Moving Image Julia Hallam, Les Roberts, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring the methodologies used by film scholars to develop a spatial history of the moving image Leading scholars in the interdisciplinary field of geo spatial visual studies examine the social experience of cinema and the different ways in which film production developed as a commercial enterprise as a leisure activity and as modes of expression and communication Their research charts new pathways in mapping the relationship between film production and local film practices theatrical exhibition circuits and cinema going creating new forms of spatial anthropology Topics include cinematic practices in rural and urban communities development of cinema by amateur filmmakers and use of GIS in mapping the spatial development of film production and cinema going as social practices Introduces some of the concrete ways practical mapping and GIS technologies help elaborate historical film projects The scope of many of these projects is breathtaking in scale Others embrace ethnographic methods that tell poignant individual stories Still others deftly merge qualitative and quantitative approaches As a whole the volume brings together disparate fields of study in interesting ways James Craine California State University Northridge This collection breaks new ground for cinema history Hallam and Roberts have gathered some of the foremost scholars who are mapping spatial histories of the moving image and the geographies of film production distribution and consumption Introducing new interdisciplinary methods and asking new questions Locating the Moving Image takes film studies into new territory beyond the boundaries of the text and its interpretation towards an understanding of the relationship between culture spatiality and place Richard Maltby Matthew Flinders Distinguished Professor of Screen Studies Flinders University
