Benjamin Lazier, 2012-06-24 Could the best thing about religion be the heresies it spawns Leading intellectuals in interwar Europe thought so They believed that they lived in a world made derelict by God's absence and the interruption of his call In response they helped resurrect gnosticism and pantheism the two most potent challenges to the monotheistic tradition In God Interrupted Benjamin Lazier tracks the ensuing debates about the divine across confessions and disciplines He also traces the surprising afterlives of these debates in postwar arguments about the environment neoconservative politics and
