Design teams of diverse backgrounds Interdisciplinary projects Part 5 Design and nature visual representation Providing a comprehensive source for new perspectives on design and Design Thinking Expanding the Frontiers of Design is ideal for designers and design academics of all disciplines wishing to strengthen and innovate their practice as well as industry leaders who seek to consolidate their business strategies and evolve their work Area Studies (Regional Sustainable Development Review): China - Volume II Sun Honglie, Shidong Zhao, 2009-09-22 Area Studies Regional Sustainable Development Review China theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Area Studies Regional Sustainable Development Review in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias This theme on Area Studies Regional Sustainable Development Review China reviews initiatives and activities towards sustainable development in China Although these presentations are with specific reference to China they provide potentially useful lessons for other regions as well These three volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs Scale and Access Issues Affecting Smallholder Hog Producers in an Expanding Peri-urban Market Costales, Achilles, Delgado, Christopher L., Catelo, Maria Angeles, Lapar, Ma. Lucila, Tiongco, Marites, Ehui, Simeon K., Bautista, Anne Zillah, 2006 A dramatic increase over the past fifteen years in domestic pork demand and production in the Philippines has created a potentially profitable opportunity for poor rural and agricultural households In Southern and Central Luzon the two biggest markets however smallholder pig producers hold only a minority share of total production compared to larger commercial farms This report seeks to assess the scope for smallholders to remain in business by analyzing the relative profitability of small and large farms Using field data from pig producing households the researchers assess the role of internal and external factors in determining a household's participation in production and marketing and examine the combination of technical and allocative efficiency exhibited by specific farms under particular circumstances They conclude that the smallest scale pig producers will not survive market competition and will require alternative occupations Many others however could profit from pig production if policy and institutional changes ensure their access to inputs to animal health services that can guarantee output quality and to markets for higher quality output These findings are a valuable contribution to poverty reduction efforts in the Philippines The American Journey Joyce Oldham Appleby, Alan Brinkley, James M. McPherson, 2003 China's Digital Expansion in the Global South Richard Heeks, Christopher Foster, Ping Gao, Xia Han, Nicholas Jepson, Seth Schindler, Qingna Zhou, 2024-12-16 For those wanting to understand implications for the Global South of China's emergence as a digital superpower this book analyses China's digital impact in Latin America North Africa and Asia covering issues including platforms e-commerce technology transfer and digital surveillance It also incorporates a major literature review that outlines a six part future research agenda At the intersection of China's growing global presence and growing digital power lies its digital expansion in the low and middle income countries of the Global South Worth billions of USD annually in trade and investment and having a significant impact on these countries social and economic development this phenomenon has been relatively ignored by researchers to date This major new volume provides significant new insights that help advance our knowledge of this important topic A systematic review of literature identifies key issues within the field and outlines a six part future research agenda Those issues are then explored in greater depth reviewing the relationship between activities of Chinese platform firms the state s Belt and Road Initiative and local context in the Global South investigating the activities of Alibaba as it has sought to grow its operations in Mexico analysing whether two Chinese tech giants Huawei and ZTE are contributing to an upgrading of local technological capabilities in Algeria and Egypt and digging behind portrayals of China exporting digital authoritarianism to understand the realities of surveillance system exports to countries in Latin America Overall the book fills important gaps in our understanding of China s digital expansion in the Global South and challenges preconceptions and one sided views of this major recent activity It was originally published as a special issue of The Information Society

Towards a European Model of Development ,1973 Sustainability, Care, Play and the Zone of Proximal Development Louise Bøttcher,Ditte Winther-Lindqvist,Mariane Hedegaard,Marilyn Fleer,2025-09-26 This book addresses the central issue of children's social situation of development in relation to sustainability care and imagination. The concept of sustainability is topical in current societal discussions but much in need of further elaboration which is provided by this book as an integrated aspect of childcare and child development. It provides an exploration of whether and how sustainability can contribute relevantly to conceptual development within the cultural historical framework with relation to child development more broadly and care and imagination more specifically. A central question in the book is how the concept of sustainability is related to Vygotsky's writings on the zone of proximal development and the social situation of development. It takes on the current need to understand the problem of creating more sustainable societies and practices as interconnected practices for supporting the development of children as present and future sustainability responsible citizens. This book provides a much needed theoretical elaboration of child care as a scientific concept, the practice context of care and a wholistic conceptual approach to care.

Regional Development Theories and Their Application Benjamin Higgins, 2017-07-12 Throughout the world today former nation states as disparate as Yugoslavia, Somalia and Canada have either disintegrated or threaten to splinter into regions. The conflicts are economic, social, ethnic, linguistic, religious, political and cultural. Higgins and Savoie analyze the reasons for these conflicts and show why attempts to eliminate regional disparities within nations have been largely unsuccessful. This volume is a highly readable comprehensive survey of the literature and current debates in the fields of regional economics, development policy and planning.

Mountain Resorts Julia LeMense, 2016-04-22 Mountains are the home of significant ecological resources: wildlife habitat, higher elevation plant systems, steep slopes, delicate soils and water systems. These resources are subject to very visible and growing pressures, most of which are caused by the unique features of mountains. Using as case studies four mountain resorts in the US and Canada, this book analyzes the extent to which the law protects the ecological systems of mountains from the adverse impacts associated with the development, operation and expansion of resorts. In order to examine these issues, Mountain Resorts takes an interdisciplinary approach with contributions from ecologists and lawyers who focus on ski-related activities, increasing four season use of the mountains and expanding residential, commercial and recreational development at the mountains base. Its analysis of an array of US and Canadian federal, state and local laws provides a multifaceted exploration of the intersection of ecology and the law at mountain resorts.
