Transmedia in Asia and the Pacific Filippo Gilardi, Celia Lam, 2021-03-06 Transmedia in Asia and the Pacific is a timely exploration of a global media phenomena that offers a unique perspective on the production, consumption and use of transmedia storytelling in the Asia Pacific region. Through close analysis of case studies from Australia, Cambodia, China, Japan, Malaysia, South Korea and West Papua, the chapters in this book provide insight into the cultural and transcultural contexts against which transmedia storytelling takes place in the region. From community theatre and social media narratives in China to transcultural consumption of Japanese texts in French, Spanish and English speaking countries, to the use of transmedia for education in Japan and China, examples highlight the diverse ways in which a global and commercialised media phenomenon is appropriated and recontextualised to local circumstances. This volume questions the centre-periphery dichotomy of understanding global media through perspectives that seek to enrich understanding and definitions of transmedia. It is a valuable resource for scholars and students wishing to expand their engagement with the theory and practice of transmedia storytelling.
