important American playwrights and political and cultural figures of the 20th century Both Death of a Salesman and The Crucible stand out as his major works the former is always in performance somewhere in the world and the latter is Miller s most produced play As major modern American dramas they are the subject of a huge amount of criticism which can be daunting for students approaching the plays for the first time This Reader s Guide introduces the major critical debates surrounding the plays and discusses their unique production histories initial theatre reviews and later adaptations The main trends of critical inquiry and scholars who have purported them are examined as are the views of Miller himself a prolific self critic Elements of Literature Gordon W. Brown,2002 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn,Correll, Pamela,Pearman, Cathy,Huffman, Stephanie,2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher s voice dominates and only the dominant culture s language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices
