This report entitled Climate change and local regional and devolved government HCP 225 session 2007-08 ISBN 9780215522122 sets out 22 conclusions and recommendations including that Central Government has a duty to co-ordinate how different spheres of government interact and integrate in regard of action on climate change. Overcoming barriers to progress on climate change is essential and the Government must look at incentives and encouragements it can offer to local regional and devolved government. All local authorities should be obliged to include climate change indicators in their Local Area Agreements and further the investment and development plans for local authorities should consider the need to reduce emissions and adapt to climate change. That local authorities regional and devolved governments need to be aware of other targets including biodiversity and energy efficiency that the Government needs to consider what part carbon impact assessments will play in local regional and devolved governments and how they can become a central role in decision and policy making.
