Answered Tourism Pat 2014:

ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16 Cruise Ship Tourism, 2nd Edition Ross Dowling, Clare Weeden, 2017-01-25 Completely updated and revised Cruise Ship Tourism 2nd Edition covers the economic social and environmental impacts of cruising combining the latest knowledge and research to provide a comprehensive account of the subject Despite the industry growing rapidly there is a substantial gap in the related literature and this book addresses the key issues for researchers students and industry professionals A valuable one stop shop for those interested in cruise ships and maritime tourism this new edition from major names in the field is also an invaluable resource for anyone concerned more widely with tourism and business development Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding Charlie Mansfield, Jasna Potočnik Topler, 2022-12-30 Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding is an insightful expert led book which provides tourism students with a practice based approach to producing researched literary travel writing on an urban destination using the writing process as a research tool in itself The book is scientifically supported with full academic references for researchers On a global basis city councils and destination managers are seeking new ways to commission and sponsor professional content authors as part of place branding projects for tourism development Given the increasing prevalence of such content within the tourism industry this book provides a cohesive overview of literary travel writing presenting it as an enquiry process that can be applied by writer researchers to spaces that have value to them Travel writing is presented as a methodological practice that researchers can learn and apply to their own projects both in academic settings and in commercial city branding Examples of literary travel writing are carefully examined throughout and their affects refracted through further work Enriched with a wealth of case studies chapters are presented in such a way that readers can take the work as a model for their own projects This informative and practical volume will be of great interest to students of tourism marketing destination marketing place branding and travel writing as well as current creators of commercial tourism marketing content Travel, Tourism, and Identity Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-29 Travel Tourism and Identity addresses the psychological and social adjustments that occur when people make contact with others outside their social cultural or linguistic groups Whether such contact is the result of tourism seeking exile or relocating abroad the volume s contributors demonstrate how one s identity cultural assumptions and worldview can be brought into question In some cases the traveller finds that bridging the social and cultural gap between himself and the new society is fairly easy In other cases the traveller discovers that reorienting himself requires absorbing a new cultural history and traditions The contributors argue that making these adjustments will surely enhance the traveller s or tourist s experience otherwise the traveller or tourist will be at risk of becoming a marginalized figure one disconnected from the society that surrounds him This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series features a collection of essays on travel and tourism The essays cover a range of topics from historical travels to modern social identities They discuss ancient travels contemporary travels in Europe Africa and sustainable eco tourism and the politics of tourism Essays also address experiences of Grenada s Spice Island identity and the effects of globalization and migrations on personal identity Cross-Cultural Design: Applications in Mobile Interaction, Education, Health, Transport and Cultural Heritage P.L. Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic powder keg border bridge or Europe s Other the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest national contest and ethnic divide Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local regional and national levels In this ongoing process of heritage re interpretation tourism is more than just a dark spectacle While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Kosovo this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma Unlike many previous studies this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology art history geography and political studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change What Else is there for a Boy Like Me? Patrick Moon,2014-01-28 Patrick Moon abandons a successful career as a city solicitor and heads for India Where better he thinks to come to terms with the opportunity he has created for himself the chance to reinvent his life But how much of his old self and his old view of the world will survive this watershed How should he best fill in the blank sheet of paper in front of him And how will he deal with his other reason for travelling to India He wants to try to reinvent another life that of Mohamd a talented young Indian from a primitive village in the Rajasthan desert whose potential is blocked by the twin obstacles of poverty and caste But Patrick underestimates how much of the weight of Indian society will be stacked against him and how difficult it will be to pluck an individual out of India s crowd In the end neither of these twin efforts to change a life works out as Patrick expected But while one can be counted a success the other ends profoundly unhappily A tale as rich in comedy and affection for India as it is full of sadness love and regret What else is there for a boy like me is a compelling read not only for Indiaphiles but also for anyone who has ever felt the impulse to try to change the fortunes of someone from a less privileged part of the world It will also appeal to anyone who has ever fantasised about changing careers in middle age as well as all those who have an interest in the issue of arranged marriages Belfast

Feargal Cochrane,2023-01-01 A lively and inviting history of Belfast exploring the highs and lows of a resilient city Modern Belfast is a beautiful city with a vibrant tradition of radicalism industry architectural innovation and cultural achievement But the city s many qualities are all too frequently overlooked its image marred by association with the political violence of the Troubles Feargal Cochrane tells the story of his home city revealing a rich and complex history which is not solely defined by these conflicts From its emergence as a maritime port to its heyday as a center for the linen industry and crucible of liberal radicalism in the late eighteenth century through to the famous shipyards where the Titanic was built Belfast has long been a hub of innovation Cochrane s book offers a new perspective on this fascinating story demonstrating how religion culture and politics have shaped the way people think act and vote in the city and how Belfast s past continues to shape its present and future
