Color, Space, and Creativity Jack Stewart, 2008 This study of Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Joyce Cary Lawrence Durrell and A S Byatt focuses on color space and creativity in selected novels stories travel texts essays and letters Stewart highlights a nexus of color space and creativity that takes on ontological dimensions in the writing of five writers who are linked by stylistic affinities and correspondingly calibrated sensibilities They engage writing with painting and their acts of attention converge in a zone where color space and creativity sustain the imaginative life world of their characters This study should lead to ongoing reflections on the roles of color and space in modernist and postmodernist texts and direct attention to the subtle and pervasive interactions of literature with painting

BOOK JACKET

Institute Book of Readers Theatre Dr. William Adams, 2003 The book is a compendium of the Institute's basic findings presented in a format intended to be a maximum hands on use to the wide range of readers who wish to apply presentational theater to their individual needs Werner's Voice Magazine Edgar S. Werner,1897 Folk-taxonomies in Early English Earl R. Anderson,2003 A folk taxonomy is a semantic field that represents the particular way in which a language imposes structure and order upon the myriad impressions of human experience and perception Thus for example the experience of color in modern English is structured around an inventory of twelve basic color terms but languages vary in the number of basic color terms used from thirteen or fourteen terms to as few as two or three Anthropological linguists have been interested in the comparative study of folk taxonomies across contemporary languages and in their studies they have sometimes proposed evolutionary models for the development and elaboration of these taxonomies The evolutionary models have implications for historical linguistics but there have been very few studies of the historical development of a folk taxonomy within a language or within a language family Folk Taxonomies in Early English undertakes this task for English and to some extent for the Germanic and Indo European language families The semantic fields studied are basic color terms seasons of the year geometric shapes the five senses the folk psychology of mind and soul and basic plant and animal life forms Anderson s emphasis is on folk taxonomies in Old and Middle English and also on the implications of semantic analysis for our reading of early English literary texts Werner's Magazine ,1898 Collier's Cyclopedia of Commercial and Social Information and Treasury of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge on Art, Science, Pastimes, Belles-lettres, and Many Other Subjects of Interest in the American Home Circle ,1882
