jobs to get money to buy his crippled mother's medicine. He learned to work at a sawmill with adult men in the deep dark woods. He learned how to find wild greens and to kill the animals that he loved so much. This was a way of life to survive. He found out the hard way his life had changed forever. Many hardships made him grow up in a hurry in his tender years. Uncle Andrew sent little money and gifts to help Brigom and his mother Ruth. The most valued gift was a watch Brigom received for Christmas. Little did he know this would bring heartache when Larry, a boy that lived on the mountain, wanted to buy the watch and would not take no for an answer. Brigom became so frightened of Larry trying to take the watch off his arm or threatening to beat him up. Brigom began to walk over the mountain to the valley below and there he made friends with a family that helped him and his mother survive the winter months. Mr. Keyes tells him about a cave that he wanted to explore. This was something he could do and not worry about Larry haunting him. The mountain that Brigom loved so much had become a haunting ground. Every where he went he imagined seeing Larry laughing and making fun of him. Each day he became more afraid of his life. Something was telling him he may have to move off the mountain or his life may be no more. Fear was overtaking him; he even had thoughts of death.

Lit'l Bit's Classroom Jo Ann Farber, 2000-07-24 A plethora of children's wit and wisdom as told through their daily lives with a childcare teacher. All are conversations she heard during her eleven years of working in preschool center. The insight and humor of the children is revealed quite cleverly. The author's love for children comes through strongly as you read the collection. This is a one of a kind work very unique and sometimes hilarious. Also contains many craft ideas and helpful hints for preschool teachers and or parents. Working with children is the most rewarding thing I have ever done. These years have been a very educational experience. If I planted one seed along the way I feel I have done my part. The title Lit'l Bit was a nickname from years ago. One day I couldn't reach something on a shelf and I said I'm not big enough. My husband replied Oh you're such a little bit and the name stuck.
