Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-01-01 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought

Improvised Dance Nalina Wait, 2023-04-14 This book elucidates the technical aspects of improvised dance performance and reframes the notion of labour in the practice from one that is either based on compositionally formal logic or a mysterious impulse to one that addresses the in corporeal dimensions of practice Mobilising the languages and conceptual frameworks of theories of affect embodied cognition somatics and dance this book illustrates the work of specialist improvisers who occupy divergent positions within the complex field of improvised dance It offers an alternative narrative of the history and current practice of Western improvised dance centred on the epistemology of its in corporeal knowledges which are elusive yet vital to the refinement of expertise Written for both a disciplinary specific and interdisciplinary audience this book will interest dance scholars students and practising artists
