Second Handbook of Research on Mathematics Teaching and Learning Frank K. Lester, 2007-02-01 The audience remains much the same as for the 1992 Handbook namely mathematics education researchers and other scholars conducting work in mathematics education This group includes college and university faculty graduate students investigators in research and development centers and staff members at federal state and local agencies that conduct and use research within the discipline of mathematics The intent of the authors of this volume is to provide useful perspectives as well as pertinent information for conducting investigations that are informed by previous work The Handbook should also be a useful textbook for graduate research seminars In addition to the audience mentioned above the present Handbook contains chapters that should be relevant to four other groups teacher educators curriculum developers state and national policy makers and test developers and others involved with assessment Taken as a whole the chapters reflects the mathematics education research community's willingness to accept the challenge of helping the public understand what mathematics education research is all about and what the relevance of their research findings might be for those outside their immediate community On Evaluating Curricular Effectiveness National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Center for Education, Mathematical Sciences Education Board, Committee for a Review of the Evaluation Data on the Effectiveness of NSF-Supported and Commercially Generated Mathematics Curriculum Materials, 2004-11-12 This book reviews the evaluation research literature that has accumulated around 19 K 12 mathematics curricula and breaks new ground in framing an ambitious and rigorous approach to curriculum evaluation that has relevance beyond mathematics The committee that produced this book consisted of mathematicians mathematics educators and methodologists who began with the following charge Evaluate the quality of the evaluations of the thirteen National Science Foundation NSF supported and six commercially generated mathematics curriculum materials Determine whether the available data are sufficient for evaluating the efficacy of these materials and if not Develop recommendations about the design of a project that could result in the generation of more reliable and valid data for evaluating such materials The committee collected reviewed and classified almost 700 studies solicited expert testimony during two workshops developed an evaluation framework established dimensions criteria for three methodologies content analyses comparative studies and case studies drew conclusions on the corpus of studies and made recommendations for future research The TurnAround ToolKit Lynn Winters, Joan Herman, 2011 Lynn Winters's and Joan Herman's The Turnaround Toolkit is written for school leaders who are focused on transforming instruction and who may be working under significant time constraints to reverse declining student achievement or public perceptions of school failure Based on the evidence that simply implementing continuous improvement is not enough to close the achievement gap The Turnaround Toolkit provides a nine step formative evaluation program designed to achieve an immediate and consistent focus on improving instruction in order to bolster student achievement In a straightforward and accessible fashion Herman and Winters explain three overarching Turnaround Tasks that frame these steps and the necessary and sometimes drastic actions that must be taken by school leaders as they use data to strategically choose implement monitor and revise school interventions A dedicated online toolkit offers numerous worksheets and templates that support each stage of the process and help school leaders scaffold the work of educators to put an aggressive turnaround plan into action while a leadership guide at the end of the book provides guidance to turnaround teams and facilitators Algebra 2, Grades 9-12 Holt Mcdougal,2006-01-05 El-Hi Textbooks and Serials in Print ,2006
