Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business 2010 Dennis Campbell, 2010-11-01 This edition of the Comparative Law Yearbook of International Business provides a general examination of issues vital to the world's economic recovery. In the field of company law, practitioners examine changes in Russia's corporate law and the new Ukrainian law governing joint stock companies. In the area of competition law, lawyers review Serbia and Bulgaria's new laws on the protection of competition and the private enforcement of Articles 101 and 102 in Europe's national courts. Dispute resolution occupies two chapters, one dealing with best practices for drafting arbitration clauses and the other set aside recognition and enforcement of private commercial arbitration awards. A further two chapters treat employment and labor matters relating to distribution and commercial representation, indemnity upon termination, and processing personal data in the employment context of Hungary. In the area of financial services, practitioners from five jurisdictions deal with fiduciary duty, the European Commission's proposed Directive on Alternative Investment Fund Managers, Swiss disclosure rules on significant shareholdings, restructuring and refinancing routes for mortgage secured debt in Spain, and insurance laws and regulations in Nigeria. Foreign investment is examined by two authors reporting on 2008 and 2009 developments in investment treaty disputes and foreign investment in Indonesia. Intellectual property issues are reviewed in chapters relating to the use of intellectual property as collateral in secured financing and intellectual property licensing in Canada. Finally, lawyers treat a variety of other issues including the tax law of Liechtenstein, European Union-Israel trade in the automobile sector, insolvency risk and creditors' rights in Peru, the modernizing of trust law in Hong Kong, and bridging cultural differences in international Transactions.

Columbia Accident Investigation Board,2003 Gender and Judging Ulrike Schultz,Gisela Shaw,2014-07-18 Does gender make a difference to the way the judiciary works and should work Or is gender blindness a built in prerequisite of judicial objectivity If gender does make a difference how might this be defined These are the key questions posed in this collection of essays by some 30 authors from the following countries Argentina Cambodia Canada England France Germany India Israel Italy Ivory Coast Japan Kenya the Netherlands the Philippines South Africa Switzerland Syria and the United States The contributions draw on various theoretical approaches including gender feminist and sociological theories The book s pressing topicality is underlined by the fact that well into the modern era male opposition to women s admission to and progress within the judicial profession has been largely based on the argument that their very gender programmes women to show empathy partiality and gendered prejudice in short essential qualities running directly counter to the need for judicial objectivity It took until the last century for women to begin to break down such seemingly insurmountable barriers And even now there are a number of countries where even this first step is still waiting to happen In all of them there remains a more or less pronounced glass ceiling to women s judicial careers Organic Electronics Stephen R. Forrest,2020 This textbook provides a basic understanding of the principles of the field of organic electronics through to their applications in organic devices Useful for the student and practitioner it is both a teaching text and a resource that is a jumping off point for learning working and innovating in this rapidly growing field Provided by publisher There is no Supreme Constitution Koos Malan,2019-10-08 None of the articles of faith of the South African Constitution is plausible The Constitution is not supreme and entrenched Subject to potent socio political forces it changes continuously and often profoundly regardless of stringent amendment requirements The trite threefold separation of powers is more metaphorical than real and therefore unable to secure effective checks and balances Though institutionally separated with their own personnel and functions the three powers are ordinarily integrated in a single dominant political leadership committed to achieving the same ideological goals

The bill of individual rights cannot guarantee justice because rights are subject to the ideologically driven exercise of judicial interpretation often with damaging consequences for those relying on the bill of rights This situation does not only apply to South Africa but to all Constitutions premised on the same articles of faith in this book described as the doctrine of statist individualist constitutionalism An improved mode of constitutionalism is called for one which is equipped with a sounder system of checks and balances and better endowed towards the achievement of justice through a balanced constitution

Defences in Equity Paul S Davies, Simon Douglas, James Goudkamp, 2018-05-03 This book is the fourth in a series of essay collections on defences in private law It addresses defences to liability arising in equity The essays range from those adopting a mainly doctrinal perspective to others that explore the law from a more philosophical perspective Some essays concentrate on specific defences while others are concerned with the links between defences or with how defences relate to the structure of the law of equity generally One aim of the book is to shed light on equitable doctrines by analysing them through the lens of defences The essays offer original contributions to this complex important but neglected field of scholarly investigation The contributors judges practitioners and academics are all distinguished jurists The essays are addressed to all of the major common law jurisdictions
