Save Anything is a volume of the best of Jim's nonfiction articles published but never collected in one place until now. Though those many boxes were overflowing with papers in the end it's not really a matter of quantity. These pieces reveal some of the breadth and depth of Jim's endless interest in the world and the people in it. One of the great pleasures in writing nonfiction is the writer's feeling of exploration of learning about things he doesn't know of finding out by reading and observing and asking questions and then writing it down. That's what you'll find here. This collection gathers Salter's thoughts on writing and profiles of important writers observations of the changing American military life evocations of Aspen winters musings on mountain climbing and skiing and tales of travels to Europe that first appeared in The New Yorker Esquire People Conde Nast Traveler the Aspen Times among other publications

A Sport and a Pastime James Salter, 2007 A Sport and a Pastime is an astonishing performance the classic novel from a remarkable writer whose sentences bristle with a singular passion. The narrator's cool distillation of events real or imagined makes the book both lyrical and tightly dangerously pitched.

Taking A Long Look Vivian Gornick, 2021-03-30 One of our most vital and incisive writers on literature feminism and knowing one's self. For nearly fifty years Vivian Gornick's essays written with her characteristic clarity of perception and vibrant prose have explored feminism and writing literature and culture politics and personal experience. Drawing writing from the course of her career Taking a Long Look illuminates one of the driving themes behind Gornick's work that the painful process of understanding one's self is what binds us to the larger world. In these essays Gornick explores the lives and literature of Alfred Kazin Mary McCarthy Diana Trilling Philip Roth Joan Didion and Herman Melville the cultural impact of Silent Spring and Uncle Tom's Cabin and the characters you might only find in a New York barber shop or midtown bus terminal. Even more Taking a Long Look brings back into print her incendiary essays first published in the Village Voice championing the emergence of the women's liberation movement of the 1970s. Alternately crackling with urgency or lucid with insight the essays in Taking a Long Look demonstrate one of America's most beloved critics at her best.
