Almost Paradise English Edition:

Almost Paradise Steve Ruedlinger, 2014-03 Enthusiasm and nerves are running high on board the nuclear powered Coast Guard cutter Broadsword as the crew prepares for their maiden voyage Confident that they have prepared and trained for every possible contingency during their deployment they are eager to get underway But a new storm brewing in the Gulf of Mexico is about to sweep these sailors into truly uncharted waters As the winds settle chaos reigns on the command deck Instruments are malfunctioning and the crew struggles to make sense of nonsensical readings The only explanation seems impossible but soon it s one they have no choice but to accept as their new reality They have been transported back to the Mid Cretaceous a voyage of nearly 92 million years into the planet s past It s a time of unrecognizable peril and challenge for the crew where incredible beasts control land sea and air A warm and humid Earth presents a changing landscape of geologic instability super storms and shifting continents Lead by the enigmatic JD Stoner the ragtag crew races to understand their new situation and find a way home Survival is far from guaranteed in an environment rife with danger that none of them is equipped to handle Can a group of twenty first century humans survive long enough to make it back to their own time

Almost Paradise Elizabeth Cain, 2013-06 When Serena Skye applies to work with abused and troubled horses in the round pen at an isolated Nevada guest ranch she instantly notices that her prospective boss Julian Rose is drop dead gorgeous After he hires her Serena begins to work her magic with the horses all while secretly pining for Julian But Serena has no idea that underneath the brilliance of equines runs a dangerous ground that will soon propel her on an unexpected journey through the darkness of insanity After just two days Serena has already impressed Julian with her wrangling skills saved his life and shared a passionate kiss with him As they cautiously begin a romantic relationship Julian discloses that he has not seen his schizophrenic wife Miranda in eight years after she was committed to a mental institution after murdering two horses and nearly killing him Too frightened to divorce her for fear of deadly repercussions Julian has just learned that Miranda has been released early and is roaming the nearby desert with a gun In this gripping psychological drama a young wrangler becomes unwittingly embroiled in a perilous struggle where she must devise a way to save the animals and people she loves from the madness that threatens their paradise

Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1959 The Caribbean, Mexico Today Alva Curtis Wilgus, 1964 This volume contains the papers delivered at the fourteenth annual conference on the Caribbean held at the University of Florida 1963 European Comics in English Translation Randall William Scott, 2002 European comic authors produced a steady stream of comic material throughout the twentieth century but gained the world s notice in 1975 when the French magazine Metal Hurlant was founded A new generation of artists and writers had begun Soon publishers were producing translations of the new comics into other languages including English and comics creators everywhere were inspired to innovation This is a reference work arranged by artist or writer to European comics from the last quarter of the twentieth century that have been translated from any European language into English. It contains a variety of material from the innocent imperialism of Herge's Tintin to the sadistic murder for hire in Bernet's Torpedo Albums by a single creator or artist and writer team of European origin. The focus comics in periodicals and anthologies with multiple contributors are excluded. Each entry provides a plot abstract and various notes about the original comic. An author index provides brief biographical information. There is a comprehensive general index. The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 The Caribbean: Mexico today Conference on the Caribbean, 14th (University of Florida, 1963), 1964 A Hand-book for Travellers in Spain, 1847 The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 2, Prose Writing 1820-1865 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. K. Patell, 1994. This is the fullest and richest account of the American Renaissance available in any literary history. The narratives in this volume made for a four-fold perspective on literature: social, cultural, intellectual, and aesthetic. Michael D. Bell describes the social conditions of the literary vocation that shaped the growth of a professional literature in the United States. Eric Sundquist draws upon broad cultural patterns; his account of the writings of exploration, slavery, and the frontier is an interweaving of disparate voices, outlooks, and traditions. Barbara L. Packer's sources come largely from intellectual history; the theological and philosophical controversies that prepared the way for transcendentalism. Jonathan Arac's categories are formalist; he sees the development of antebellum fiction as a dialectic of prose genres; the emergence of a literary mode out of the clash of national, local, and personal forms. Together, these four narratives constitute a basic reassessment of American prose writing between 1820 and 1865. It is an achievement that will remain authoritative for our time and that will set new directions for coming decades in American literary scholarship.
