Who Is the Dreamer, Who Dreams the Dream? James S. Grotstein,2013-06-17 In Who Is the Dreamer Who Dreams the Dream A Study of Psychic Presences James Grotstein integrates some of his most important work of recent years in addressing fundamental questions of human psychology and spirituality He explores two quintessential and interrelated psychoanalytic problems the nature of the unconscious mind and the meaning and inner structure of human subjectivity To this end he teases apart the complex tangled threads that constitute self experience delineating psychic presences and mystifying dualities subjects with varying perspectives and functions and objects with different often phantasmagoric properties Whether he is expounding on the Unconscious as a range of dimensions understandable in terms of nonlinear concepts of chaos complexity and emergence theory modifying the psychoanalytic concept of psychic determinism by joining it to the concept of autochthony comparing Melanie Klein s notion of the archaic Oedipus complex with the ancient Greek myth of the labyrinth and the Minotaur or examining the relationship between the stories of Oedipus and Christ Grotstein emerges as an analyst whose clinical sensibility has been profoundly deepened by his scholarly use of mythology classical thought and contemporary philosophy The result is both an important synthesis of major currents of contemporary psychoanalytic thought and a moving exploration of the nature of human suffering and spirituality

Phenomenology of Life and the Human Creative Condition Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2013-04-17 Self individualization has been interpreted as the process in which the all embracing Self unfolds into an infinite variety of different individuals plants animals and men A comparison of the different ways in which the Self manifests itself in the biological and psychological developmental processes or in a visionary image of the undivided Self reveals the same basic structure of expression The Self the one is represented by a circular domain and comprises a basic inner duality the two creating a paradox of conflicting opposites In the undivided Self the two give rise to a trinity in which however a quaternity is hidden The latter expresses itself in this world as the four basic forces the four Elements or the four main archetypes specifying the possibilities or development in space and time Self individualization starts with the first appearance of a primary structure of an individual sub Self This is the fifth basic force the fifth Element Further development is characterized by four generative principles 1st the principle of wholeness connection and integration being oriented to remaining whole or restoring wholeness 2nd the principle of complementarity and compensation a periodic shift between opposing influences 3rd the enstructuring principle causing the relative stability of the spatial appearance of the manifest structure and 4th the principle of gesture resulting in a gradual stepwise development of that structure into a full grown individual

Survival Kit for the Physiology Student Francisco Suárez, José Miguel Biscaia, Miguel Marchena, Javier Vicente-Tejedor, 2021-10-19 This book is designed to ease the pain of the physiology student when preparing for exams and more importantly while studying It can be used in two ways either grabbing questions from everywhere or searching for questions according to specific concepts Each chapter provides questions classified according to basic specialized or advanced concepts and allows the reader to visualize the concepts they are working on This is the ideal complement to standard physiology textbooks Correlation and Regression Philip Bobko, 2001-04-10 This text takes statistical theory in correlation and regression and makes it accessible to readers using words and equations Examples are used to explain how the techniques work and under what circumstances some creativity in application is necessary Developing a Social Network Analysis and Visualization Module for Repast Models Sascha Holzhauser, 2010 Inquiry Into Satellite and Missile Programs United States.
