Animals As Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond, David Clough, Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser, 2013
Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond, Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser, David L. Clough, 2013-08-15 This book examines one of the most pressing cultural concerns that surfaced in the last decade the question of the place and significance of the animal This collection of essays represents the outcome of various conversations regarding the animal studies and shows multidisciplinary at its very best namely a rigorous approach within one discipline in conversation with others around a common theme The contributors discuss the most relevant disciplines regarding this conversation namely philosophy anthropology religious studies theology history of religions archaeology and cultural studies The first section Thinking about Animals explores philosophical anthropological and religious perspectives raising general questions about the human perception of animals and its crucial cultural significance The second section explores the intriguing topic of the way animals have been used historically as religious symbols and in religious rituals The third section re examines some Christian theological and biblical approaches to animals in the light of current concerns The final section extends the implications of traditional views about other animals to more specific ethical theories and practices Theological Ethics Through a

Multispecies Lens Celia Deane-Drummond, 2019 This book is the first volume on the evolution of wisdom Using a combination of ethnographic and ethological studies it shows how key moral attributes of compassion justice and wisdom are woven into relationships with animals Grounding Religion Whitney A. Bauman, Richard Bohannon, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2023-09-29 Now in its third edition Grounding Religion explores relationships between the environment and religious beliefs and practices Established scholars introduce students to the ways religion shapes and is shaped by human earth relations surveying a series of key issues and questions with particular attention to issues of environmental degradation social justice ritual practices and religious worldviews Case studies discussion questions and further readings enrich students experience This third edition features updated content including revisions of every chapter and new material on religion and the environmental humanities sexuality and queer studies class ability privilege and power environmental justice extinction biodiversity and politics An excellent text for undergraduates and graduates alike it offers an expansive overview of the academic field of religion and ecology as it has emerged in the past fifty years and continues to develop today

Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A. Berkowitz, 2018-04-19 Animals and Animality in the Babylonian Talmud selects key themes in animal studies animal intelligence morality sexuality suffering danger personhood and explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud Beth A Berkowitz demonstrates that distinctive features of the Talmud the new literary genre the convergence of Jewish Christian and Zoroastrian cultures the Talmud's remove from Temple centered biblical Israel led to unprecedented possibilities within Jewish culture for conceptualizing animals and animality She explores their development in the Babylonian Talmud showing how it is ripe for reading with a critical animal studies perspective

When we do we find waiting for us a multi layered surprisingly self aware discourse about animals as well as about the anthropocentrism that infuses human relationships with them For readers of religion Judaism and animal studies her book offers new perspectives on animals from the vantage point of the ancient rabbis Evolution and the Fall Cavanaugh & Smith,2017 What does it mean for the Christian doctrine of the Fall if there was no historical Adam If humanity emerged from nonhuman primates as genetic biological and archaeological evidence seems to suggest then what are the implications for a Christian understanding of human origins including the origin of sin Evolution and the Fall gathers a multidisciplinary ecumenical team of scholars to address these difficult questions and others like them from the perspectives of biology theology history Scripture philosophy and politics CONTRIBUTORS William T Cavanaugh Celia Deane Drummond Darrel R Falk Joel B Green Michael Gulker Peter Harrison J Richard Middleton Aaron Riches James K A Smith Brent Waters Norman Wirzba City Creatures Gavin Van Horn,Dave Aftandilian,2015-11-03 This anthology explores Chicago s surprisingly diverse wildlife through essays poetry paintings and photographs We usually think of cities as the domain of humans but we are just one of thousands of species that call the urban landscape home While Chicago residents are likely familiar with squirrels pigeons and dogs many would be surprised to learn about the leafhoppers and water bears black crowned night herons and bison beavers and massasauga rattlesnakes that are living alongside them City Creatures introduces readers these and other creatures through a variety of creative contributions Contributors bring a story based approach to this urban safari taking readers on birding expeditions to the Magic Hedge at Montrose Harbor on the North Side canoe trips down the South Fork of the Chicago River better known as Bubbly Creek and insect collecting forays or restoration work days in the suburban forest preserves The book is organized into six sections each highlighting one type of place in which people might encounter animals in the city and suburbs For example schoolyard chickens and warrior wasps populate Backyard Diversity and a chorus of deep freeze frogs awaits in Water Worlds Its powerful combination of insightful narratives numinous poetry and full color art will help readers see the city and the creatures who share it with us in an entirely new light

Encountering Earth Trevor George Hunsberger Bechtel,Matt Eaton,Tim Harvie,2018-05-14 One day Matthew Eaton was walking through an impromptu animal shelter display at his local pet store when suddenly an eight month old kitten dug his claws into Eaton s flesh Eaton recognized that the eyes of this cat and the curve of his claw compelled a response analogous to those found in the writings of Buber Levinas and Derrida And not just Eaton but a whole community of theologians have found themselves in an encounter with particular places and animals that demands rich theological reflection Eaton enlisted fellow editors Harvie and Bechtel to collect the essays in this volume in which theologians listen to horses rats snakes cats dogs and the earth itself who become new theological voices demanding a response In this volume the voice of the more than human world is heard as making theology possible These essays suggest that what we say theologically represents not simply ideas of our own making subsequently superimposed onto the natural world through our own discovery but rather flow from an expressive Earth Laudato Si' and the Environment Robert McKim, 2019-09-11 This volume is a response to Pope Francis environmental encyclical Laudato Si Published in 2015 the encyclical urges us to face up to the crisis of climate change and to take better care of the Earth our common home while also attending to the plight of the poor In this book the Pope's invitation to all people to begin a new dialogue about these matters is considered from a variety of perspectives by an international and multidisciplinary team of leading scholars There is discussion of the implications of Laudato Si for immigration population control eating animals and property ownership Additionally indigenous religious perspectives development and environmental protection and the implementation of the ideas of the encyclical within the Church are explored Some chapters deal with scriptural or philosophical aspects of the encyclical Others focus on central concepts such as interconnectedness the role of practice and what Pope Francis calls the technocratic paradigm This book expertly illuminates the relationship between Laudato Si and environmental concerns It will be of deep interest to anyone studying religion and the environment environmental ethics Catholic theology or environmental thought Animals as Religious Subjects Celia Deane-Drummond, Rebecca Artinian-Kaiser, 2013
