Anime's Identity Stevie Suan, 2021-11-09 A formal approach to anime rethinks globalization and transnationality under neoliberalism Anime has become synonymous with Japanese culture but its global reach raises a perplexing question what happens when anime is produced outside of Japan Who actually makes anime and how can this help us rethink notions of cultural production In Anime's Identity Stevie Suan examines how anime's recognizable media form no matter where it is produced reflects the problematics of globalization The result is an incisive look at not only anime but also the tensions of transnationality Far from valorizing the individualistic originality so often touted in national creative industries anime reveals an alternate type of creativity based in repetition and variation In exploring this alternative creativity and its accompanying aesthetics Suan examines anime from fresh angles including considerations of how anime operates like a brand of media the intricacies of anime production occurring across national borders inquiries into the selfhood involved in anime's character acting and analyses of various anime works that present differing modes of transnationality Anime's Identity deftly merges theories from media studies and performance studies introducing innovative formal concepts that connect anime to questions of dislocation on a global scale creating a transformative new lens for analyzing popular media The Routledge

Companion to Cult Cinema Ernest Mathijs, Jamie Sexton, 2019-11-22 The Routledge Companion to Cult Cinema offers an overview of the field of cult cinema films at the margin of popular culture and art that have received exceptional cultural visibility and status mostly because they break rules offend and challenge understandings of achievement some are so bad they're good others so good they remain inaccessible Cult cinema is no longer only comprised of the midnight movie or the extreme genre film Its range has widened and the issues it broaches have become battlegrounds in cultural debates that typify the first quarter of the twenty-first century Sections are introduced with the major theoretical frameworks philosophical inspirations and methodologies for studying cult films with individual chapters excavating the most salient criticism of how the field impacts cultural discourse at large Case studies include the worst films ever exploitation films genre cinema multiple media formats cult cinema is expressed through issues of cultural national and gender representations elements of the production culture of cult cinema and throughout aspects of the aesthetics of cult cinema its genre style look impact and ability to yank viewers out of their comfort zones The Routledge Companion to Cult Cinema goes beyond the traditional scope of Anglophone and North American cinema by including case studies of East and South Asia continental Europe the Middle East and Latin America making it an innovative and important resource for researchers and students alike

The Politics of Perverts Charles Anthony Smith, Shawn R. Schulenberg, Connor B. S. Strobel, 2024-06-29 This book is a first of its kind treatment of the political beliefs behaviors and sociopolitical lives of members of the BDSM Furies Polyamory and Nudists communities The groups also have a significant number of people who identify as bisexual These are diverse groups that are often pushed to the periphery of society and when all are combined are many times larger than the LGT community
