Announcement Of Retirement From Kindergarten:

Education in Hong Kong, 1941 to 2001 Anthony Sweeting, 2004-07-01 It provides comprehensive coverage of developments in formal and informal education in Hong Kong from the end of 1941 to the beginning of the new millennium. As was true of its predecessor, each Part of this book is subdivided into three sections: Commentary, Chronicle, and Evidence. Such an organization facilitates flexible reading. Readers primarily interested in analysis, interpretation, and the identification of themes are likely to focus initially on the Commentary sections and to move as they feel stimulated to the relevant entries in the Chronicle and/or items of Evidence. Readers who seek either more encyclopedic understanding or detailed answers to specific questions may well wish to focus primarily or at least initially on the Chronicle sections and then to search for substantiation in the Evidence section or for amplification in the author's Commentary. At times some readers may wish to browse through the Evidence sections reaching possibly serendipitous discoveries. Academic and general readers are likely to be particularly interested in Part I of the book which deals with education in Hong Kong during the Japanese occupation, a topic that has received only very rare and generalization-bound treatment in other publications. The author offers insights into all levels of education. His conceptual scope incorporates many types of education including the mainstream academic education, technical education, teacher education, special education, physical education, civic education, education that focuses on morals, that which focuses on culture, and the various sorts of non-formal and informal education.

Constitution of the United States, Magna Carta, Mayflower Compact, Declaration of Rights, Declaration of Independence, Articles of Confederation, Constitution of the State of California, as Last Amended ..., 1973 The Living Church, 1958

Michigan Education Journal, 1951 Includes section Moderator topics John Ogden, Abolitionist and Leader in Southern Education Dennis K. McDaniel, 1997 Who was John Ogden 1824-1910 the first Superintendent, later Principal and President of Fisk School today's Fisk Univ? Was he Dr. Ogden? A Methodist minister. An educator from Pennsylvania. An ex-Army Captain. A veteran of the Civil War from the second Wisconsin Cavalry regiment. A moral threat to female students. A despiser of blacks. A man not interested in church building. No, all these terms of address and descriptions are incorrect, but they provide hints about where and how Ogden did spend his life, what interested him, and how he was the subject of inaccurate, scurrilous gossip and the subject of inaccurate, respectful addresses. This volume presents a study of Ogden in his role as one of the early participants in Southern Negro education.
