Indian Political Cartoons Vinod Balakrishnan,Vishaka Venkat,2023-07-13 This book develops a model to examine the language of humour which is multimodal and accounts for the possibility of transmutation of humour as it is performed through editorial cartoons By transmutation is meant the transition in the language of humour when it crosses its own boundaries to provoke unprecedented reactions resulting in offensiveness disappointment or hurt sentiment The transmutability about the language of humour points to its inherently diabolical nature which manifests in the performance of controversial cartoons The model is built by borrowing theoretical cues from Roman Jakobson Roland Barthes George Lakoff and Mark Johnson The integrated model then is developed to examine the cartoons which were recommended for deletion by the Thorat Committee following a cartoon controversy in India Through the cartoon analysis the model discerns the significance of context and temporality in determining the impact of humour It also examines how the ethics of humour the blurred lines of political correctness and incorrectness are dictated by the political atmosphere and the power dynamics

Writings of an Amateur Dustin A. Benson,2014-05-07 As a man whose mind wonders in depths most do not fathom Benson is back again to continue the volume He now brings to the table stories from 2002 to 2007 with more symbolic meaning hidden messages and unnoticed observations Benson describes small worlds of pure imagination and creativity ranging from morbid events to sexual foreplay juvenile letters to mature conversation and no story is left out Twisting together both fiction and nonfiction Benson describes events that will leave you wondering on what will be next As an added treat Benson adds illustrations to his works Emotions as Key Drivers of Consumer Behaviors: A Multidisciplinary Perspective, 2nd edition Debora Bettiga,Giuliano Noci,Omneya Yacout,2025-09-16 Consumers not only make rational decisions but also emotional ones Research now recognizes the significance of diverse neglected factors such as emotions affect arousal and pleasure in appraisal and has identified processes and behaviors that do not fit with the traditional view of acting as a result of a purely deliberate process Consumers behaviors and choices are grounded both in consumer beliefs and judgements and in experiences and emotions Individuals more broadly bring their perceptions values feelings and cognitive schemes to bear in interpreting the world In this context unconscious physiological manifestations can offer indications as to how people evaluate filter and react to external stimuli What is expressed by the conscious mind indeed does not represent a full and perfect representation of the actual needs and wishes of individuals Understanding consumer behaviors has long been a challenging endeavor due to different variables affecting decision making mechanisms and the difficulty of measuring them It requires indeed a comprehension of both the cognitive information processing mechanisms and of the affective and experiential systems of individuals Moreover it demands an appreciation of the rich and deep interplay between cognitive and affective processes Understanding consumers emotions can inform practitioners on how to effectively communicate with their target audience whether internal or external in order to elicit attention engagement and positive emotional responses and to build emotional connections Human stress engagement cognitive and emotional responses may be taken into account in the development of products and services by understanding consumers responses and experience with them This has a deep impact at the organizational level in terms of marketing strategies putting the consumer at the center of the whole organization This Research Topic aims to disseminate knowledge on the role of emotions in consumer behavior throughout the purchasing process while also allowing for dialogue between disciplines such as psychology organizational behavior marketing neuroscience bioscience and design Authors are encouraged to submit empirical theoretical and systematic review papers on themes including but not limited to the role of emotions in consumer behavior throughout the purchasing process neurophysiological methods to detect consumers emotions affective drivers of choice hedonic consumption and individual experience characterization classification and measurement of emotions the effect of positive emotions and negative emotions on the appraisal process the role of anticipated and transient emotions in consumer choices customer centric marketing strategies consumers expression of emotions on social media consumer emotions during online service encounters consumer emotions after negative service incidences antecedents to brand love and brand hate consumer emotions in ethical consumption contexts

The Athenaeum ,1873 Athenaeum ,1874 Factsheet Five ,1994 Humour in Asian Cultures Jessica Milner Davis,2022-06-30 This innovative book traces the impact of tradition on modern humour across several Asian countries and their cultures Using examples from Japan Korea Indonesia and Chinese cultures in Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan the contributors explore the different cultural rules for creating and sharing humour Humour can be a powerful lubricant when correctly interpreted mis interpreted it is likely to cause considerable setbacks Over time it has emerged and submerged in different periods and different forms in all these countries but today s conventions still reflect traditional attitudes to and assumptions about what is appropriate in creating and using humour Under close examination Milner Davis and her colleagues show how forms and conventions that differ from those in the west can also be seen to possess elements in common With examples including Mencian and other classical texts Balinese traditional verbal humour Korean and Taiwanese workplace humour Japanese laughter ceremonies performances and cartoons as well as contemporary Chinese language films and videos they engage with a wide range of forms and traditions This fascinating collection of studies will be of great interest to students and scholars of many Asian cultures and also to those with a broader interest in humour studies It highlights the increasing importance of understanding a wider range of cultural values in the present era of globalized communication and the importance of reliable studies of why and how cultures that are geographically related differ in their traditional uses of and assumptions about humour
