

American Gov. Chapter 1 Notes

1.1

Government: How society organizes itself and allocates authority to accomplish collective goals

- Gov. benefits for citizens examples: Education, health care, and an infrastructure for transportation

Politics: The process of gaining and exercising control within a gov. To achieve goals

- Gov. systems and economic systems get confused for one another because some political thoughts are closely related to some economic systems
 - Ex: Capitalism developed around the same time as democratic republics, self-gov. and natural rights

John Locke: "All people have natural rights to life, liberty and property (be free to consent to being governed)"

Adam Smith: "All people should be free to acquire property in any way instead of being controlled by the gov"

Democracy: Political system where people govern themselves with capitalism

Socialism: Economic system where generated wealth are owned by gov's, and not private individuals

Oligarchy: Only members of a certain political party or ruling elite can participate in gov Ex: [China=Communist Party]

Private Goods: Food, clothing, housing etc are provided in ample supply by private businesses that earn a profit in return

Public Goods: Goods that are provided by the gov. and are available to all without charge (national security and education)

Toll Good: Goods that are available but only if people can pay the price (private school) vs public school

- Exs of public goods: Emergency services, mail services

Common Goods: Goods that people can use free of charge but are of limited supply

Ex: Fish, Clean drinking water -REGULATED ACCESS-

- In the U.S. people elect representatives to city councils, state legislature, and congress (they make laws to govern their jurisdiction)

1. Local Level: Funds are allotted for education, police, fire departments and maintenance of public parks (state governments allocate money for roads, bridges, state colleges and universities)
2. National Level: Money goes to defense social security, maintenance of federal courts and prisons, and pensions for veterans
3. Each Level: Representatives try to secure funding for things that will benefit those who live in the area they represent

★ Local, state and national governments make laws to maintain order and

B. Guy Peters, 2012-10-16 Voting and elections may often be cited as the most entertaining aspect of political theatre however it is the arena of public policy that has the most direct impact on the lives of the citizenry And as we have seen played out in recent debates over healthcare reform policy changes can be dramatic sweeping and often hotly contested Known for providing a trusted and comprehensive overview of the policy process B Guy Peters returns with the ninth edition of American Public Policy Promise and Performance Beyond walking students through the governmental structures and policy making procedures Peters efficiently covers a wide swath of policy areas and then concludes with a look at both cost benefit analysis and ethical analysis Framed in context of the aftermath of the financial crisis and Great Recession the ninth edition considers how policy has been impacted by persistent unemployment and growing income inequality In addition Peters discusses the strain on education budgets increased oversight of financial activities fiscal policies meant to stimulate the economy and the political challenge of balancing the budget in light of increased public spending Careers in
