Narrative and Critical History of America Edited by Justin Winsor ,1888 Narrative and Critical History of America: The United States of America, 1775-1782: their political struggles and relations with Europe Justin Winsor,1888

The Political History of the United States of America, During the Great Rebellion, from November 6, 1860, to July 4, 1864 Edward MacPherson,1865 Defending Same-Sex Marriage Martin Dupuis,William A. Thompson,Traci C. West,2006-12-30 Today we find ourselves at a crossroads of two powerful unrelenting currents that are completely at odds with one another The movement for legal recognition of same sex unions has gone beyond the separate but equal status of civil unions to demand equality in marriage for all couples Progress is being made on many fronts mayoral action clergy officiating at same sex marriage and union ceremonies state legislative responses and street protests to name a few Meanwhile opposition to same sex marriage has also been gathering strength The struggle is sure to continue unabated for some time to come pitting those who believe in the traditional definition of marriage as a union between a man and a woman and who seek to codify this belief in the U S Constitution against those who find the basis for marriage between two loving committed individuals not only in the history of our civil rights legislation and court decisions but also in scripture and sacred religious traditions Those who believe in extending to same sex couples the 1 049 rights conferred by marriage as well as the supportive embrace of religious communities seek to strengthen the institution of marriage by making it inclusive and by passing laws and broadening doctrines to uphold marriage rights for all couples This three volume set clarifies the legal political religious cultural and social ramifications of same sex marriage for gay and lesbian couples and their families and friends and for the general public interested in the future of civil rights in the United States American History Harvard University. Library, 1967 Henry Cabot Lodge and the Search for an American Foreign Policy William C. Widenor, 1980 The Bookseller, 1883 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom The Investor's Monthly Manual, 1867 No Escape Paul Passavant, 2003-10 No Escape proves that liberal government and nationalism can mutually reinforce each other taking as its example a preeminent and seemingly universal liberal legal right freedom of speech and illustrating how it can function in a way that actually reproduces nationally exclusive conditions of power Catalogue of books in the library of the American antiquarian society American antiquarian society, 1837 Discovering the Cosmos with Small Spacecraft Brian Harvey, 2017-11-24 Explorer was the original American space program and Explorer 1 its first satellite launched in 1958 Sixty years later it is the longest continuously running space program in the world demonstrating to the world how we can explore the cosmos with small spacecraft Almost a hundred Explorers have already been launched Explorers have made some of the fundamental discoveries of the Space Age Explorer 1 discovered Earth's radiation belts Later Explorers surveyed the Sun the X ray and ultraviolet universes black holes magnetars and gamma ray bursts An Explorer found the remnant of the Big Bang One Explorer chased and was the first to intercept a comet The program went through a period of few launches during the crisis of funding for space science in the 1980s However with the era of faster cheaper better the program was reinvented and new exciting missions began to take shape like Swift and the asteroid hunter WISE Discovering the Cosmos with Small Spacecraft gives an account of each mission and its discoveries It breaks down the program into its main periods of activity and examines the politics and debate on the role of small spacecraft in space science It introduces the launchers Juno Thor etc the launch centers the ground centers and key personalities like James Van Allen who helped develop and run the spacecraft's exciting programs The Labour Governments 1964-70 Steven Fielding, John W. Young, 2003 Part of The Labour Governments 1964-70 series this text concentrates on Britain's international policy during Harold Wilson's Labour governments in the 1960s The coverage ranges from defence policy and the government machine to European integration NATO and the Vietnam War Harold Wilson and his ministers have often been accused of betraying the sense of promise that greeted their victory in 1964 Using recently released archival evidence Young argues that a more balanced view of the government should recognize the real difficulties that surrounded decision making not only on Vietnam but also on Aden the Nigerian Civil War and Rhodesia tensions and the need to placate allies all placed limits on what a once great but clearly declining power could achieve Furthermore the government proved of pivotal importance in the history of Britain's international role in that it presided over a major shift of focus from positions east of Suez to European concerns a focus that has remained until the present day international relations during this exciting period Together with the other books in the series on domestic and economic policy it provides a complete picture of the development of Britain under the premiership of Harold Wilson
