Lowry,2012-09-01 Promoting the idea of sermon as narrative Eugene Lowry s first book The Homiletical Plot became one of the most influential preaching books of the latter part of the 20th century While the sermon as narrative has become conventional preaching wisdom it is largely misunderstood Sermons are by definition narratives and as such they have plots At the same time the sermon is not a story While similar in many ways narratives and stories are distinct Therefore to think of narrative preaching as merely one of many homiletical styles is to misunderstand and reduce the nature of the sermon The sermon is more than just an option for the preacher rather it is by definition a narrative because it happens in time not in space This changes everything because the sermon ceases to be something a preacher constructs like a thesis or even a painting Instead it is more like a piece of music something a preacher plays within intuitively to a constant beat time after time week after week In light of this revelation what are new strategic aims for sermon preparation and delivery Premier Piano Course: Theory
