Ritual Mask Making Theresa Walton, AI, 2025-03-29 Ritual Mask Making explores the captivating world of indigenous masks revealing them not merely as artifacts but as vital components of spiritual rituals cultural preservation and governance These masks passed down through generations serve as conduits to the spirit world enabling connections with deities and ancestors in various indigenous cultures Intriguingly masks also function as instruments of social and political order reflecting authority and resolving conflicts thereby challenging Western centric views on art and power The book traces the historical evolution of mask making traditions examining the impact of colonialism and globalization Through ethnographic studies archaeological findings and visual analysis it presents a holistic view of these dynamic expressions of cultural identity By delving into specific case studies across different cultures the book highlights the materials techniques and symbolism inherent in these masks emphasizing their contemporary relevance in promoting cultural revitalization and addressing ethical considerations surrounding their study and display

Cursed Masks Gabriel Barnes, AI, 2025-02-27 Cursed Masks explores the captivating intersection of history and spirituality through the lens of masks believed to harbor spiritual forces or bring misfortune Diving into cultural beliefs and folklore the book reveals how masks beyond their physical form have been perceived as conduits for the occult and concealed identity From ancient rituals to modern interpretations masks reflect humanity's enduring fascination with hidden realms and the darker aspects of the human psyche The book deconstructs the idea of inherent power in masks arguing that their perceived potency stems from deeply ingrained cultural beliefs and psychological projections It progresses systematically beginning with foundational concepts of mask symbolism across cultures then moves into case studies of masks associated with malevolent forces Finally it culminates in an analysis of the psychological underpinnings of these beliefs revealing how masks tap into primal fears and desires

Jaguar's Shadow Richard Mahler, 2009-09-01 When the nature writer Richard Mahler discovers that wild jaguars are prowling a remote corner of his home state of New Mexico he embarks on a determined quest to see in the flesh a big beautiful cat that is the stuff of legend yet verifiably real Mahler's passion sets in motion a years long adventure through trackless deserts steamy jungles and malarial swamps as well as a confounding immersion in centuries old debates over how we should properly regard these powerful predators as varmints or as icons trophies or gods He is drawn from border badlands south to Panama's rain forest along a route where the fate of nearly all wildlife now rests in human hands Mahler's odyssey introduces him to unrepentant poachers pragmatic ranchers midnight drug runners ardent conservationists trance induced shamans hopeful biologists stodgy bureaucrats academic philosophers macho hunters and gentle Maya Indians Along the way he is forced to reconsider the true meaning of his search and the enduring symbolism of the jaguar

Jungle-tastic Tales Helen Pugh, 2022-11-15 From the author of Inca tastic Tales comes a new collection of short stories

Jungle tastic Tales Are you brave enough to join Yacumama the Amazon's most humongous and powerful snake on a once in a lifetime trip to the Amazon Region in South America You are Fab Then grab your camera mosquito net and raincoat and LET'S GO You're gonna travel through thousands of years of history and culture a lot of which not many grown ups know about For example did you know There were once huge cities in the Amazon rainforest The Amazon is home to millions of different species of animals and plants The first city in Peru to get electric street lights was in the Amazon Region A Premier League footballer grew up in the Ecuadorian Amazon If that's got your interest then jump in the canoe and we'll get started straight away We'll start with the Ice Age and go right the way through to modern times Oh and Yacumama promises not to bite you She'll be on her best behaviour Praise for The Mysterious Helpers really exciting a good yarn I believe everyone should read this beautiful story Ebony Mask / Ebony Gold Wallace B. Collins, 2003-03-22 Years ago I met a friend in London I had not seen in many years He posed a very interesting question to me He wanted me to give him a statement on Jomo Kenyatta who was then incarcerated as the leader of the Mau Mau uprising in Kenya Though I did not have an answer for my friend I kept his question in my mind Then years later my wife and I decided to visit Kenya on Safari with friends which I recount here vividly in this book They were like two birds set free hoop the coop flew away from their prison abode caged for decades until February 1990 on that sunny day in Capetown when I saw Nelson Mandela live on CNN Television with his wife Winnie Mandela They strolled through the gates of Pollsmoor Prison away from 37 years of incarceration by the Apartheid Regime That experience intrigued me enough that my wife and I decided with a group of friends to visit South Africa and see what would happen to us as a group of African Americans it was while there that I touched yellow Ebony Gold as detailed in my book Wonders of Animal Life Sir John Alexander Hammerton, 2008 The Death of Authentic Primitive Art Shelly Errington, 2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century's end it has died a double but contradictory death Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts At the same time the penetration of nation states the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art bringing about a second death Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums art theorists mail order catalogs boutiques tourism and world events tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia a national museum of anthropology a cultural theme park an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development Errington's dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies Masks of Identity

Řemysl Mácha, José Eloy Gómez Pellón, 2014-06-02 This collection of essays offers some thoughts on alterity otherness in anthropological praxis viewed through the prism of the Latin American reality It is neither an exhaustive treatment of the problem of Otherness in anthropological theory nor a definitive analysis of the various forms of represented practiced and contested alterities in Latin American history Rather the authors have been brought together by several common concerns The first is an interest in exploring and understanding some of the ways in which Otherness structures social relations at the everyday as well as the national levels The second is a theoretical and methodological question of how the perspective which foregrounds the Other at the expense of the Self might make the anthropological inquiry more effective and emancipatory Thirdly the authors are interested in how they can as researchers teachers and citizens help overcome cleavages which group identities constantly produce in the body of humanity The Others that the authors of this book explore include indigenous peoples mestizos African slaves women insurgent peasants as well as hybrid groups re claiming a new identity While each of the eight authors focuses on social phenomena from different time periods and parts of Latin America they all share as their common denominator the Spanish colonization of the continent which set off a series of events whose consequences eventually exceeded the wildest fantasies of the boldest thinkers of these times The authors particularly focus on the visual representation and performance of alterity but also give room to some non visual ways in which Otherness is established and subverted Inevitably this volume presents a diverse selection of contributions which nevertheless share some common problems concerns and hopes which in their totality provide a complex picture of Otherness in everyday life in historical and contemporary Latin America The Book of Perception: Spiritually Proven El-Dumarè Asar ,2024-04-08
