Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

History of the Freedom Movement in Bihar Kalinkar Datta, 1957

The Rise and Growth of Hindi Journalism, 1826-1945 Ram Ratan Bhatnagar, 1947

Haryana, a Historical Perspective Satish Chandra Mittal, 1986 This is an authoritative attempt at a reconstruction of the historical past of Haryana. It is the first systematic and analytical study of the political developments in Haryana from the third battle of Panipat in 1761 to the formation of a new state of Haryana in 1966. The work examines the nature of political ideas, institutions, and the course of struggle of the people of Haryana in a historical perspective. It analyses the character of the administration of Haryana under various types of government: the local chiefs, the East India Company, and the British Crown. Besides critically examining the nature and character of mutual rivalries and conflicts of the local chiefs, the work analyses the factors and forces leading to the changing attitude and policy of the British residents and the Governor Generals of India. It also answers such pertinent questions as to why this region could not gain a separate political and administrative identity earlier and was tagged to Delhi 1803, North Western Provinces 1834, or the Punjab 1858. This work meticulously describes the nature and frequently changing masters of the region, the wider impact of the 1857 Uprising, the socio-religious reform movements of the nineteenth century, the emergence of the political consciousness, the nature and course of the national movement in the region up to the partition of India in 1947, and finally the demand and formation of a new separate state in 1966. This book will be of immense interest to the general reader as well as scholars and also serve as a useful reference on the national and political history of India.

Knit India Through Literature Volume IV - The North Sivasankari, 2024-05-23

Knit India Through Literature is a mega literary project, first of its kind in Indian literature, is the result of the penance yagna done for 16 years by Sivasankari, noted Tamil writer. Knit India Through Literature has involved intense sourcing, research, and translation of literature from 18 Indian languages. The project, she says, aims to introduce Indians to other Indians through literature and culture and help knit them together. The interviews of stalwart writers from all 18 languages, approved by the eighth schedule of the Indian Constitution, accompanied by a creative work of the respective writer, are published with her travelogues of different regions, along with an in-depth article by a scholar on the cultural and literary heritage of each of the languages in four volumes: South, East, West, and North, respectively. Her travelogues, her interviews, and the overview of each literature she has sought all reveal one important unity: the concern our writers and poets express in their works for the problems that beset our country today. Through her project, Sivasankari feels writers can make an invaluable contribution with their writings to change the thinking of the people and help eliminate those problems In this volume North she deals with five languages Kashmiri Punjabi Urdu Hindi and Sanskrit that are spoken in northern region of India Origin and Development of Hindi/Urdu Literature Madan Gopal,1996 Sam̐skṛti sandhāna,1995 An Encyclopaedia of World Hindi Literature Gaṅgā Rām Garg,1986 Hindu Revivalism in Bengal, 1872-1905 Amiya P. Sen,2001-02-28 This work is an intensive study of certain facets of social and intellectual life in Bengal between 1872 and 1905 particularly Hindu revivalism The period under discussion represents significant progress in the area of social and religious reform as well as a period which witnessed hostile attitudes towards such reforms This is probably the first major work concerning the controversy that surrounded the Brahmo Marriage Bill of 1868 72 and the Consent Bill of 1890 92 The major source material for this book comprises contemporary Bengali literature including essays newspaper articles and correspondence novels short stories drama and poetry Though this study purports to be a history of intellectual life in Bengal and the broader intellectual trends and movements it is largely an examination of certain developments centred in or around Calcutta National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases Five Decades D. S. Rao,2004 On the completion of fiftieth year of Sahitya Akademi
