1. The First Continental Congress p. 85-86

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes	Analysis
British imperial attempts to reassert control over its colonies and the colonial reaction to these attempts produced a new American republic, along with struggles over the new nation's social, political, and economic identity.	Significance of the Intolerable Acts . . . - Intensified the conflict between Britain and colonists - Most Americans reached the conclusion that only rebellion was to prevent loss to Britain - The First Continental Congress: - purpose was to respond to Britain's demands however, most Americans had no desire for independence and wanted to protect guaranteed rights/privileges of rights and restore relationship with crown like it was before the seven years war - All states sent delegates, except CA, to the convention in Philly 1774 - The Delegates: - Diverse group whose views ranged from radical to conservative - Radicals = Patrick Henry (VA), Samuel Adams & John Adams (Mass.) Moderates were George Washington (PA) and John Dickinson (DE). Conservatives were John Jay (NY) and Joseph Galloway (PA). group not represented = Virginia - Actions of the Congress: - Delegates voted to issue a list of resolutions which intended to change British policy without offending colonists and conservatives - Congress proposed a plan for Albany Union (1774) that would have united colonies with PA, Delaware and New Jersey, making colonies that instead remained divided - Resolves (Decree), stated the colonies' right of taxation w/o consent for colonies to resist laws by withholding military support - Support the President Declaration of Rights and the laws of England long to preserve national government and colonial rights, recognized Parliament's authority to regulate commerce - Declaration of colonial rights was not recognized, they would resist again	Summarize the purpose of the First Continental Congress. The purpose of the First Continental Congress was for the colonies to unite and respond to the Intolerable Acts the British had enforced. They were to decide how to handle the British threat to colonial rights. What was the most significant act of this Congress? Define your answer. The most significant act of this Congress was declaring the repeal of the Intolerable Act because this act led to the American Revolution.
