Kissing the Mango Tree Carmen Socorro Rivera, 2002-01-01 Pioneering novelist and short story writer Nicholasa Mohr broke onto the literary scene of ethnic autobiography in the early 1970s but it took another decade for other Puerto Rican women writers in the United States to follow the path that she cut From the late 1970s on a dynamic group of these writers have expanded the landscape of American literature Kissing the Mango Tree is the first and only book to examine the works of the most popular Puerto Rican women writers from the perspective of feminist literary criticism Rivera reconstructs the ethno feminist aesthetic of Judith Ortiz Cofer Sandra Mar a Esteves Nicholasa Mohr Aurora Levins Morales Rosario Morales Esmeralda Santiago and Luz Mar a Umpierre Herrera In separate chapters dedicated to each of these writers the author locates their works within the framework of feminist theory and literature seeing them as women with macho asserting their creative powers to record their own versions of their memories to own their own bodies They transform the way we look at the process of growing up and becoming a woman at the relationship with our mothers and our daughters at the fluidity of our lives at our notions of nationhood This groundbreaking study is accompanied by a complete bibliography of the six writers works and secondary sources of feminist Latino and ethno poetic criticism and theory

Writing the Multicultural Experience Pauline Kaldas, 2022-08-30 This textbook takes a new approach to teaching creative writing that centers the concerns of multicultural students It focuses on the experiences of those who wish to write through their diverse identities including ethnic cultural racial national regional and international identity as well as gender identity sexual preference class position and disability Combining the study of culturally diverse literature with the process of writing students are encouraged to engage with various texts and to use them to inspire their own work Organized around a series of writing prompts and discussions of literary readings that address identity place perception family community encounters inheritance and resistance this book offers both writers and teachers a way to engage with the practice of writing from a multicultural perspective

The Afro-Latino Memoir Trent Masiki, 2023-08-29 Despite their literary and cultural significance Afro Latino memoirs have been marginalized in both Latino and African American studies Trent Masiki remedies this problem by bringing critical attention to the understudied African American influences in Afro Latino memoirs published after the advent of the Black Arts movement Masiki argues that these memoirs expand on the meaning of racial identity for both Latinos and African Americans Using interpretive strategies and historical methods from literary and cultural studies Masiki shows how Afro Latino memoir writers often turn to the African American experience as a model for articulating their Afro Latinidad African American literary production expressive culture political ideology and religiosity shaped Afro Latino subjectivity more profoundly than typically imagined between the post war and post soul eras Masiki recovers this neglected history by exploring how and why Black nationalism shaped Afro Latinidad in the United States This book opens the border between the canons of Latino and African American literature encouraging greater intercultural solidarities between Latinos and African Americans in the era of Black Lives Matter Women on the Edge Corinne H.
