Standard & Poor's Creditweek , 1984 American Heroes Oliver North, 2013-11-05 From the New York Times bestselling author of Heroes Proved a moving and inspirational chronicle of our national heroes sacrifices and triumphs in Iraq and Afghanistan after their return to the homefront Combat decorated Marine Oliver North delivers a riveting firsthand account of the extraordinary young American volunteers the best and bravest of their generation who stepped forward to defend us from radical Islamic terror For more than a dozen years North and his award winning documentary team from FOX News Channel's War Stories have traveled to the frontlines of the War on Terror to profile the dedicated men and women who serve our nation in harm's way and chronicle what it truly means to be a hero. This time he follows them from the battlefield to the homefront and finds extraordinary inspiration in their triumph over life-altering adversity. In this new volume of his New York Times bestselling American Heroes series, North describes in vivid detail the breathtaking courage, steadfast commitment, and resilient strength of those who serve and those who love them. The term selfless devotion may be a cliché to many in our modern culture, but not to the men and women on the pages of this book. Their stories resound with bravery, a warrior ethos, and spiritual strength that ought to encourage us all. Heroes are people who knowingly place themselves at risk for the benefit of others. They give of themselves literally and physically. Since the terror attack of 9/11/01, more than 2 million young Americans have volunteered to serve in difficult and dangerous places. No military force in history has been asked to do more than those who have served and sacrificed in this long fight. They are American heroes. So too are their loved ones here at home. These are their stories.

The Routledge Companion to Air Transport Management Nigel Halpern, Anne Graham, 2018-01-31. The Routledge Companion to Air Transport Management provides a comprehensive up-to-date review of air transport management research and literature. This exciting new handbook provides a unique repository of current knowledge and critical debate with an international focus, considering both developed and emerging markets and covering key sectors of the air transport industry. The companion consists of 25 chapters that are written by 39 leading researchers, scholars, and industry experts based at universities, research institutes, and air transport companies and organisations in 12 different countries in Africa, Asia, Pacific, Europe, and North America, to provide a definitive, trustworthy resource. The international team of contributors have proven experience of research and publication in their specialist areas and contribute to this companion by drawing upon research published mainly in academic, industry, and government sources. This seminal companion is a vital resource for researchers, scholars, and students of air transport management. It is organised into three parts: current state of the air transport sectors; Part I: application of management disciplines to airlines and airports; Part II: and key selected themes; Part III.

TV Format Mogul Albert

Moran, 2013-01-06 Since the late 1990s when broadcasters began adapting such television shows as Big Brother Survivor and Who Wants to Be a Millionaire for markets around the world the global television industry has been struggling to come to grips with the prevalence of program franchising across international borders In TV Format Mogul Albert Moran traces the history of this phenomenon through the lens of Australian producer Reg Grundy's transnational career Program copycatting Moran shows began long before its most recent rise to prominence Indeed he reveals that the practice of cultural and commercial cloning from one place to another and one time to another has occurred since the early days of broadcasting Beginning in the late 1950s Grundy brought non Australian shows to Australian audiences becoming the first person to take local productions to an overseas market By following Grundy's career Moran shows how adaptation and remaking became the billion dollar business they are today An exciting new contribution from Australia's foremost scholar of television TV Format Mogul will be a definitive history of program franchising Heaven, Hell, and in Between Yuko Sawa, 2013-08-30 This is a story of a woman who is bilingual and bicultural After college she literally bulldozed her way to higher rungs on the corporate hierarchy in a male dominated business environment of advertising in Japan She has her stories of how she got there giving tips on how women trying to rise higher on the corporate ladder where not just glass ceilings exist but concrete ceilings She also describes her observations on the cultural political and economic differences and upheavals of the recent times as well as developments between the US and Japan and her observations of other countries in Europe South America Australia New Zealand and the Asian countries as far as India countries where she traveled on business and her vacations with her husband And how she is today when she decided to become a writer after she turned sixty five She has shown that there is life after retirement that there are other ways to pursue development of a second career Though pessimistic at times she always relied on her optimism to achieve fulfillment The book is full of hope both yet unachieved and those achieved
