Metaphor

"Man, they were death row rats."

Onomatopoeia

"When it goes off your heart thuds to a stop for a microsecond, wham."

Idiom

"She's...bouncing around the kitchen and talking a mile a minute."

Metaphor
Hyperbole

"Boy does that make his eyes blaze—so upset he can hardly talk."

Simile

"Gram is uneasy, I can see her eyes filling nervously around the room, like she's crossing the border into a really foreign country."

Idiom

"What she means is, you're a spitting image of your old man."

Simile

"One day this wimpy little kid tried it when nobody was looking and the sword slipped out like it was stuck in butter."

Metaphor
Hyperbole

"I must have seen her bringing Freak to daycare, way back in the dark ages."

Onomatopoeia

"It makes him sort of out of breath, you can hear him wheweing, or I guess you'd call it panting, like a dog does on a hot day."

Simile

"...what's real?"

Neo-Victorianism and Medievalism ,2024-04-30

Bringing together neo Victorian and medievalism scholars in dialogue with each other for the first time this collection of essays foregrounds issues common to both fields

The Victorians reimagined the medieval era and post Victorian medievalism repurposes received nineteenth century tropes as do neo Victorian texts

For example aesthetic movements such as Arts and Crafts which looked for inspiration in the medieval era are echoed by steampunk in its return to Victorian dress and technology Issues of gender identity sexuality imperialism and nostalgia arise in both neo Victorianism and medievalism and analysis of such texts is enriched and expanded by the interconnections between the two fields represented in this groundbreaking collection What Answer? Anna E. Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with Health Issues Cynthia Ann Bowman, 2000-03-30 Today traditional illnesses and high risk behaviors of adolescents have become interrelated through the multitude of physical social and emotional changes young people experience Good literature which gives adolescents the truth has incredible power to heal and to renew This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels that can help adolescents struggling with health issues Educators and therapists explore novels where common health issues are addressed in ways to captivate teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on encouraging adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills With the advancement in medicine traditional types of health issues such as birth defects cancer and sensory impairment have shifted to more behavior related problems such as depression alcoholism and eating disorders All of these issues and others are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective in thirteen chapters that explore health issues through fiction Each chapter confronts a different health issue and is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist In each novel these experts define the central character s struggle in coming to terms with an issue and growing in response to their difficulties Annotated bibliographies of other works both fiction and nonfiction explore these same issues give readers insight into helping teenagers with similar problems and provide the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems Are They Really Reading? Jodi Crum Marshall, 2002 All too often the poorest readers learn that if they keep quiet during sustained silent reading SSR they re doing okay no reading required This is especially true in middle school where class sizes are large and instructional emphasis is on content rather than reading In Are They Really Reading Jodi Crum Marshall discusses how to find out if your students are using SSR time wisely and what to do about it if they re not Her book describes how to support middle grade readers who need it the most while embracing a research proven need to increase independent self selected reading time for students Jodi shares lessons and anecdotes from her classroom and from her experience as a reading specialist implementing her model schoolwide She expands the traditional concepts of SSR to include read alouds writing and accountability to scaffold struggling middle grade students Bolstered by these additional supports Jodi s students dramatically increased their interest and ability in reading through a program they named Supporting Student Literacy SSL Classroom teachers will appreciate the clear direction on how and why to implement an SSR program Administrators will appreciate the guidance for establishing a schoolwide literacy block that substantially improves student motivation and learning Are They Really Reading answers the following important questions Why should I start an SSR program How do I build a classroom library Where do I get funding for books and other materials How do I prepare the students for SSR How do I motivate students to read What is the role of the teacher How do I assess SSR If you don't currently use a sustained silent reading program this book will help you get started on the right track If you worry that some of your students aren't really reading during SSR or if you want to enhance your program here is a roadmap that is instructionally sound and flexible enough to fit your students' needs Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas

Sharon Kane, 2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands-on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites, and journal writing and reflection Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry, and online content communities and websites into their classrooms Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening, and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks Motivational

Interventions Stuart Karabenick, Tim Urdan, 2014-11-21 This established book series is designed to reflect current research and theory concerned with motivation and achievement in work, school, and play Each volume focuses on a particular issue or theme and the series has a special goal of bringing the best in social science to bear on socially significant problems
