Life of the Sailor Chester Litvin,2010-06 We are emigrants and having the mind of sailors we want to connect We are discovering and unifying all parts of our psyche and are having genuine dialogs and real meetings In the past we were forced to become part of a collective where the ideologists were acting as crooked preachers to lure the naive The ideologists were enlisting us to live a life of monks In return they were promising happiness and a heaven on earth Opposite to radical collective instead of creating the rigid structure of compliance and ignoring our subconscious feelings sailors decided to enjoy flexible interactions between all parts of the psyche To be happy we are altering connections between our fragments The plasticity of self is a big advantage It is including the cooperation of consciousness and sub consciousness We do not suppress our thoughts and feelings and are treating them with respect We are not rejecting any subconscious messages however unlike they are Only when our fragments are respecting each other does the genuine dialog exist and our identity is solid and does not fall apart under the stress Life of the Sailor examines the psyche of the collective and asks the question how do we remain true to ourselves Special Prosecutor and Wtergate Grand Jury Legislation United States.
