

6 Simple MINDFULNESS Activities for your Classroom

BELLY BREATHING

Centervention has a complete lesson plan you can use on belly breathing. You will find everything from pre and post discussion questions to step-by-step directions. It is a wonderful activity for when students need to cool down and self-regulate.

CALMING CORNER

Calming corners can help reduce students' stress and provide calming visual, auditory, and tactile experiences for de-stressing. A calming corner can be a physical corner in your classroom or a virtual space.

BRAIN BREAKS

Brain breaks are activities, or short breaks, that promote learning and focus for students. These types of breaks involve students participating in activities like mindful breathing, mindful movements, and mindful yoga.

MINDFUL JOURNALING

Three Good Things: A Happiness Journal is a free app that can help students with mindful journaling by having students write down three good things that happen to them each day. As a result, their happiness and positivity increase.

BREATH, THINK, DO

The free Breath, Think, Do app through Sesame Street is great for introducing young children to calm through breathing. Children help an animated monster facing a frustrating situation calm down by taking long, deep breaths.

SMILING MIND

Smiling Mind is a free app that offers hundreds of mindfulness activities. In addition to breathing meditations, the app has sensory exercises, like listening to music. There are programs for kids in different age groups, as well as for schools, workplaces, and sports.

way being consciously aware on purpose living in the present moment without mental judgment. In addition to the in-depth application of mindfulness in different subdisciplines of psychology e.g. social, personality, clinical, developmental, health, organizational, there is also a trend toward cross-fertilization with other social and behavioral disciplines e.g. design, kinesiology, sociology, family studies, education, anthropology, neuroscience, philosophy, economics, medicine, organizational science. However, the application of mindfulness in the field of communication is limited. With the rapid development of the Internet and new media, the study of Internet communication is growing rapidly. The Internet and new media make it easy to connect with others, explore a new world, and regard cyberspace as an extension of one's own thoughts and personality. Nevertheless, when people use the Internet and new media mindlessly, they will easily experience the social effects on their virtual selves and encounter psychological problems e.g. network morality, network anxiety, network pornography, network addiction, and cyberbullying, which has become a widespread and serious problem. As an important part of positive psychology, mindfulness intervention has been proved to help improve a series of negative psychological states and promote positive emotions and subjective well-being. However, what theoretical and practical contributions can mindfulness in the Internet and new media bring remains unknown. Thus, this Research Topic focuses on the influence and intervention of mindfulness on the psychological problems caused by the network new media communication. We welcome high-quality studies using a variety of research methods including quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods, and reviews on the second generation of mindfulness interventions and other meditation-based interventions e.g. focused attention meditation, transcendental meditation, and loving-kindness meditation. This Research Topic encourages submissions that cover but are not limited to the following topics:

1. The internet and new media guided mindfulness and loving-kindness meditation practice
2. Mindfulness and interpersonal communication in the network: network trust, network security, network intimacy
3. Mindfulness and network clustering behavior
4. Mindfulness and online consumer psychology
5. Mindfulness and cyber-moral psychology: cyberbullying, cyber altruism, and prosocial behavior
6. Mindfulness and online pornography
7. Mindfulness and internet addiction
8. Mindfulness and online psychological counseling
9. Mindfulness and new media anxiety
