Boys, Sara S. Lee, 2008-09 Discover the Power of Dialogue to Heal Religious Division How can members of different faith traditions approach each other with openness and respect How can they confront the painful conflicts in their history and overcome theological misconceptions For more than twenty years Professors Mary C Boys and Sara S Lee have explored ways that Catholics and Jews might overcome mistrust and misunderstandings in order to promote commitment to religious pluralism At its best interreligious dialogue entails not simply learning about the other from the safety of one's own faith community but rather engaging in specific learning activities with members of the other faith learning in the presence of the other Drawing upon examples from their own experience Boys and Lee lay out a framework for engaging the religious other in depth With vision and insight they discuss ways of fostering relationships among participants and with key texts beliefs and practices of the other s tradition In this groundbreaking resource they offer a guide for members of any faith tradition who want to move beyond the rhetoric of interfaith dialogue and into the demanding yet richly rewarding work of developing new understandings of the religious other and of one s own tradition

Why Can't We Talk? John Backman,2012-10 God s imperatives for us to practice peacemaking love others and build community all begin with authentic dialogue Think of an issue that makes your blood boil Now imagine lunch with a friend who is just as passionate about it on the other side How can the two of you even broach the issue let alone hear each other with curiosity and compassion The answer begins long before the lunch does by learning to engage dialogue as a habit of the heart an inner transformation that the ancient practices of Christian spirituality can address This highly readable and timely guide to restoring dialogue shows Christians of many stripes how to cultivate this transformation while preparing them to approach their adversaries with curiosity civility and compassion This book Examines the obstacles that keep us from dialogue black and white thinking our distraction lifestyle the fear of change and others Explores the strengths of character from which healthy dialogue springs and the work of the soul that cultivates them Shows how to enhance the work of the soul by engaging the world around us Lays out practical guidelines for dialogue and how they work in an imperfect world Includes extended anecdotes of dialogue in action from resolutions of interpersonal conflict to difficult dialogues on some of the most divisive issues of our age Uses provocative questions at the end of each chapter to stimulate group discussion and individual reflection

The Losses of Our Lives Nancy Copeland-Payton,2009 Shows us that by becoming aware of what our lesser losses have to teach us the larger losses become less terrifying Includes spiritual practices and questions for reflection weaving in spiritual and classical themes scripture and personal story
