Cold War Art Worlds Simone Wille, 2025-11-05 During the Cold War the Central European capital city Prague along with other previously less noticed locations in the polarised post war world emerged as a key site where an art world of particular importance for artists from South Asia developed By emphasising cultural mobility as a catalyst for exchange and network building this book challenges and complicates assumptions about Cold War binaries of East and West and the polarisation between so called totalitarian regimes and free cultures Positioning Prague as a nexus where South Asian modernisms intersected with multiple peoples histories and ideologies in the post World War II era it offers a narrative of decolonisation that rejected rigid systemic alignment in favour of participation across blocs by prioritising migratory aesthetics over nationalist parochialism Well researched and rich in archival materials this book proposes new ways of writing art histories and makes a significant contribution to both Cold War studies and critical global modernism studies

Creative Life Bob Ostertag, 2024-03-18 In this eloquent and passionate volume Bob Ostertag explores the common ground and points of friction among music creativity politics culture and technology In terrain ranging from the guerrilla underground in El Salvador's civil war to the drag queen underground in San Francisco and New York these essays combine journalism and autobiography to explore fundamental questions of what art is and what role it can occupy in a violent and fragmented world a world in which daily events compromise the universality toward which art strives Drawing on his intimate engagement with political conflict in Latin America and the Balkans Ostertag identifies an art of insurgent politics that struggles to expand the parameters of the physical and social world He also discusses his innovative collaborations with major modern performers filmmakers and artists around the world Part memoir part journalism and part aesthetic manifesto Creative Life is a dazzling set of writings
