All Creatures Great Music Sheet:

Down from the Mountaintop Joshua Dolezal, 2014-03 A lyrical coming of age memoir Down from the Mountaintop chronicles a quest for belonging Raised in northwestern Montana by Pentecostal homesteaders whose twenty year experiment in subsistence living was closely tied to their faith Joshua Dole al experienced a childhood marked equally by his parents quest for spiritual transcendence and the surrounding Rocky Mountain landscape Unable to fully embrace the fundamentalism of his parents he began to search for religious experience elsewhere in baseball books and weightlifting then later in migrations to Tennessee Nebraska and Uruguay Yet even as he sought to understand his place in the world he continued to yearn for his mountain home For more than a decade Dole al taught in the Midwest throughout the school year but returned to Montana and Idaho in the summers to work as a firefighter and wilderness ranger He reveled in the life of the body and the purifying effects of isolation and nature believing he had found transcendence Yet his summers tied him even more to the mountain landscape fueling his sense of exile on the plains It took falling in love marrying and starting a family in Iowa to allow Dole al to fully examine his desire for a spiritual mountaintop from which to view the world In doing so he undergoes a fundamental redefinition of the nature of home and belonging He learns to accept the plains on their own terms moving from condemnation to acceptance and from isolation to community Coming down from the mountaintop means opening himself to relationships grounding himself as a husband father and gardener who learns that where things grow the grower also takes root
