

Alliteration

Alliteration, nail, train, tone, on, are, era, ear, no, tail;

Crudit for offer!

In the land of your muse;

But, i need the way to a peaceful home.

Alliteration, Ali, all, alien, eat, ate, tea, one, ton, not, tear!

But, down with my sinking boat;

All in the name of the hatred around me.

Alliteration, rat, rate, ion, , neat, tar, art, rain, near, ill, tale;

Vicious, precious, righteous, spontaneous! !

All in the name of your love in this town,

But, my way will always lead to a pleaceful heart.

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century An Introduction to The Gawain-Poet Ad Putter,2014-09-19 The late 14th century produced a crop of brilliant writers Chaucer Langland and Gower Their achievement was rivalled only by a series of four works generally agreed to have been written by a single northern author known as the Gawain Poet This book introduces the reader to the Gawain poet s four surviving works Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Patience Pearl and Cleanness The four poems are made accessible to the student by setting them in their relevant historical and cultural context and by developing some lines of critical argument All studies are based on the author s own research and translations
